'Master Plan' Group Prepares for Rally

Culvert Job on Moraga Hwy. Will Result in Detour

Construction of a 7-foot box culvert across Moraga Highway just below Inland Valley will get under way today or Monday morning at the latest, A. P. Sorenson, the county highway department's resident engineer on the Moraga Highway improvement job, announced yesterday.

With the start of this culvert project, traffic will be detoured via Valley View Drive, Don Gabriel Way and El Camino Moraga, Sorensen said.

Sorensen and S. W. Ongman, construction inspector for the highway department, pointed out that the detour will make completion of the culvert installation possible in 30 days. Without the detour the task would take a couple of months, they stated.

DETOUR SIGNS have been posted. "We want the people to understand the reason for the detour and we appreciate their cooperation," Sorensen said.

Work now being done on Moraga Highway by the contractor, O .C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, is preliminary to the major job of widening the road from Moraga townsite to Glorietta Boulevard, Ongman explained.

The widening job will start around April 1, he said.

HE ADDED THAT from time to time, after completion of the 7-foot box culvert, there may be other detours because of smaller installations.

The preliminary work has been progressing northward from Moraga townsite. Both the preliminary work and the major work which will follow are part of the county road bond program.

SORENSEN CALLED attention to the fact that the county highway department has a field office in a trailer at Ivy Drive and Moraga Highway.

He asked people with any questions about the Moraga Highway project to phone him at the field office, DRake 6-5000.

More Money Aside For Freeway Land

The State Division of Highways has been granted a second transfer of private lands near Acalanes Junction for construction of a $1,500,000 freeway cloverleaf.

The state recently posted $24,721 with County Clerk Walter T. Paasch to cover purchase of 11 parcels of land on Sandford Road, Norton Drive, Reliez Road and the Tunnel Road highway.

Superior Judge Harold Jacoby ordered immediate possession for the state.

B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer, reported work is expected to start on the 1.3 mile cloverleaf as soon as contracts are awarded after all right-of-way land is secured. He was unable to estimate definitely when this will be.

The project will be the first phase of a two-part Lafayette by-pass costing about $5,300,000.

The state posted 89,816 Janaury 28 to cover acquisition of 12 other parcels. The funds cover estimated costs of judgments that may arise from condemnation actions against owners.

Chamber to Hear EBMUD Manager

John McFarland, general manager of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, will be guest speaker at the reguar luncheon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the Willows at noon Tuesday.

According to Chamber President Ernest Poll, McFarland's topic will be "Organization and Operation of the EBMUD."

"A question - and - answer period will follow the talk," Poll said yesterday. "Guests are cordially invited."

Bird Angered at Puny Rainfall

To compensate for his inferiority complex (he managed only .07 inch of rain over the past week) Orinda's weather bird called on the forces of winter to slap a few chilly temperatures on local residents.

Winter didn't come through with flying colors, either. A low of 24 on Saturday was the best effort.

The puny rainfall brought the season's total to 16.9 inches.

Here are the temperatures:

	High	Low
February 17	63	50
February 18	53	37
February 19	59	24
February 20	58	27
February 21	60	25

Board Names Site for Orinda Library, Gets OK from Civic Affairs Committee

A definite site for an Orinda library — on Community Center property between Irwin Way and Orinda School playfield, fronting on San Pablo Dam Road — has been recommended by the Orinda Library Board.

The recommendation, in form of a request to the Orinda Association for use of the property, received unanimous approval Wednesday night by the Association's Civic Affairs Committee.

The Library Board decided on the site February 16 at a meeting at the home of Orinda Lions Club member George Hartzell.

It was pointed out by board members the site is in accord with the County's recommendations on the Orinda master plan.

The master plan suggested a library should either be built in a shopping center or on the site chosen by the Library Board.

MEMBERS OF THE board indicated costs of land within shopping areas would be too great, and that parking and the fact that the Community Center property is "free" entered into their decision.

The February 16 meeting of the Library Board, which includes Lions Club and Orinda Junior Woman's Club members, was attended also by representatives of 14 other Orinda organizations.

Horace Breed, representing the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and the Encinas de Moraga Improvment Association, moved that the board ask the Orinda Association for use of the property.

LETTERS FROM MRS. Howard Gravelle, corresponding secretary of the board, announcing this request, were authorized to be sent to the County Planning staff, the Planning Committee of the Orinda Association and the Association's board of directors, through the Civic Affairs Committee.

Mrs. Betty Madison of the Library Board presented a report on the board's recommendation to the Civic Affairs Committee, meeting in Orinda School Wednesday night.

W. W. Lee of Orinda Estates moved that the committee recommend approval, based on the understanding that the Park Committee has already approved the site and assuming the Planning Committee will approve the site.

MRS. MADISON INDICATED the Park Committee had given tentative approval.

The Civic Affairs Committee passed the motion unanimously.

Plans call for a library of some 3200 square feet, which, when built, would be operated by the county.

Mrs. Madison, pointing out the urgency of planning for a library, said the report by Francis Violich, consultant to the Planning Committee, showed 48 per cent of those replying to a questionnaire on Orinda's needs named a library first.

Library, Zoning Questions Heard By Civic Affairs

The Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee approved a library site and heard reports on Moraga zoning, the cemetery ordinance and a proposed recreation district Wednesday night.

The committee, meeting at Orinda School, unanimously approved recommendation by the Library Board that an area be set aside in the Community Center for an Orinda library (see separate story).

MRS. MITCHELL FARRAR gave an extensive report on formation of the Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County, a group interested in a master plan for the Moraga Valley prior to zoning.

Mrs. Farrar, one of the directors of the new organization, urged the Civic Affairs Committee to aid the group.

She also distributed petitions to be signed protesting any zoning of residential areas for cemeteries.

She asked committee members to take the petitions with them to their improvement club meetings, and said protests over the cemetery question should be lodged with the County Board of Supervisors prior to March 8, when the Supervisors will consider it.

DON DeWITT OF the Glorietta Improvement Association asked the Civic Affairs Committee to get reactions from Orinda organizations on possible formation of a recreation district.

The district would set aside and develop recreational facilities in Orinda, under an appointive board, according to DeWitt.

Paul Pollaczek, new chairman, assisted by former chairman Tevis Thompson, was in charge of the meeting.

4-Car Collision Near Crossroads

A four-car rear-end collision occurred on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, 350 feet west of Orinda Crossroads, at 7:40 a.m. Wednesday, the California Highway Patrol reported yesterday.

Drivers, all headed westward, were Dr. Peter Ernest Patch, 36, 3958 Rancho Road, Lafayette; Peter Amaro, 34, 3143 Withers Avenue, Lafayette; Richard Kennish Kelly, 37, 530 Florence Drive, Lafayette, and Alan Kenyon Stetterquist, 29, of Concord.

The patrol said that a citation was pending against Dr. Patch, for following too closely. His car was described as the last in line of the four cars involved.

Junk Yard Law Passed; Cemetery Hearing March 8

The junk yard ordinance as recommended by the County Planning Commission was adopted by the Board of Supervisors Wednesday.

Public hearing on another controversial measure, the proposed cemetery ordinance, has been scheduled by the Board of Supervisors for 3:30 p.m. March 8.

According to Principal County Planner H. Russel Griffith, the junk yard ordinance allows junk yards in only industrial or commercial zones, but not in residential zones.

Applications are to be made to the Board of Zoning Adjustment, with appeals permitted to the full Planning Commission and then to the Board of Supervisors.

The cemetery ordinance, as recommended by the Planning Commission, would allow cemeteries in residential zones on land use permit in cases where the location seemed warranted, Griffith said.

"Each case would be decided on its own merits," he explained.

Fiesta May Have Parade, Dancing

A children's parade Saturday morning, May 14, and a street dance that night are two of the ideas advanced for the May 14-15 Orinda Fiesta.

A steering committee headed by Joseph Creighton met Tuesday night at Stan Allen's office and discussed the two ideas.

THE FIESTA WILL celebrate completion of the Orinda Interchange.

Stan Allen was appointed chairman of the special events committee, which is considering the parade and dance ideas.

Frank Shirey and Maynard Buehler were appointed to Allen's committee.

Buehler and George Dodge will be in charge of the queen contest to be held in connection with ticket sales. The Orinda Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the contest, according to Laura Cooper of the Fiesta committee.

SO FAR, qualifications for entrants outlined are that girls must be single, between the ages of 17 and 25 and be residents of the Orinda School District.

Other committees named Tuesday night include:

Booths — William Fleager, chairman; Miles Sutliffe and George Eberhart.

Concessions — Rudy Rasmussen, chairman; Joe Creighton and Mrs. Doris Fernsten.

Wayne Littlejohn, Mrs. George Clifford and Mrs. Clark Meurk are in charge of locating and decorating a central information booth to be established soon.

Highway Group Commends Sauer

Directors of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation voted unanimously February 10 to commend Victor Sauer, county road commissioner, and his staff, for "their work in correcting deficiencies in the county road system, reduction in maintenance costs, administration of the bond issue projects, and long range planning."

The directors met at the home of Victor R. Bjornestad, 1936 Patricia Drive, Pleasant Hill.

THE COMMENDATION vote came after a speech by Sauer and intensive round table discussion on the problems and accomplishments of the commissioners' office.

Federation Chairman Ed Rowland asked Sauer to review priorities on road projects within the scope of the federation.

The federation pledged to concentrate its 1955 activities on the improvement of the county road system and a campaign to speed up allocations of state funds for the Walnut Creek Freeway Bypass, according to Rowland.

Made up of representatives from approximately 60 chambers of commerce, service clubs, and improvement clubs in Central Contra Costa County, the federation played a role in the campaign resulting in the large state allocations for freeway construction in the area for 1955-56.

OFFICERS OF THE group for 1955, besides Rowland, are Dudley M. Thickens, vice-chairman, and Gorrill K. Butler, secretary-treasurer.

Directors are Horace Breed, Charles R. Nelson, Ned de Laveaga, Elliot J. Hartman, Robert B. McConaughy, William S. Riggs, Lawrence A. Green, Charles H. Johnson, Frank T. Shreve, Edward R. Bjornstad and Wilfred W. Hallmeyer.

Funds to Oppose Greyhound Move Voted by Counties

Opposition of Contra Costa and Marin county governments and commuter groups to Greyhound's plans for a separate Golden Gate Transit Company for its Bay Area commuter service will be carried to Washington, D.C., March 16.

On that date the full Interstate Commerce Commission will hear oral arguments on the matter in the national capital.

On recommendation of District Attorney Francis Collins, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Wednesday appropriated $700, to match a like amount appropriated by the Marin County Board of Supervisors, for expenses of Attorney Spurgeon Avakian in connection with presentation of opposition arguments at the March 16 hearing.

THE HEARING will be on the appeal of Pacific Greyhound Lines against the recommendation of an ICC hearing officer rejecting Greyhound's request. The hearing officer made his recommendation following a hearing in San Francisco several months ago.

Avakian has been representing Contra Costa and Marin Counties and the commuter organizations in both counties, in this matter. The commuter groups are the Contra Costa County Commuters Association and the Marin Federation of Commuter Clubs.

Contra Costa supervisorial action followed Collins' receipt of a letter from John E. McKirahan, co-chairman of the service committe of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

IN HIS LETTER McKirahan called attention to the $700 appropriation by the Marin County board, contingent on a like appropriation by Contra Costa County.

The commuter groups have objected strenuously to Greyhound's plans for a separate commute bus company, contending that such a move may result in increased fares.

Swim Pool Site Picked by Group

A site at the end of Valley Drive has been picked for a swimming pool and Meadow Pool, Incorporated, is in the process of obtaining an option on it, according to Mrs. Frank Leibold.

Mrs. Leibold's husband is president of the incorporated group seeking to construct a swimming pool for 200-250 member families in the Glorietta - Moraga Meadows area.

Meadow Pool was formed several months ago, and activity has centered on obtaining a definite site.

Mrs. Leibold reports "Interest has been phenomenal," by families in the area hoping to sign up for membership.

She added that if "everything goes right, we hope to be able to open the pool next summer."

Booked, But Not Before a Fight

A Concord man was arrested, but not before a struggle with sheriff's deputies and a jailer, after a ruckus at Orinda Willows about midnight Monday, according to Sergeant Walter Young of the Sheriff's Substation in Walnut Creek.

Young said James F. Davis of 1225 Mesa Street, Concord, was booked for being drunk, disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

According to the report from arresting deputies, they were called to the Willows after Young allegedly struck several other patrons.

Deputy Earl Clark and Reserve Deputy Harry Innis reported Young also attacked them, and later tried to use force on Jailer Berle Willie in Martinez.

This Sales 'Magic' Lacks C of C OK

Paul G. Winquist of 27 Glorietta Court yesterday added his voice to that of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce in urging Orindans to make sure door-to-door solicitors have clearances from the chamber.

Reason for Winquist's interest is that he learned recently that a one-legged solicitor has been "making the rounds" here, asking for money ostensibly for magazine subscriptions to be sent to a veterans' hospital of the donor's choice.

Only trouble is the money is handed over to him without any order being signed by the "subscriber" and without any receipt being given by the eloquent salesman.

"THIS MAN, minus his left leg and one thumb, and getting around with the aid of two crutches, is about 40-ish," Winquist said.

"He came to my home when I wasn't home and told my wife he is trying to get money for subscriptions to a magazine he called 'Veterans Voice,' and said the subscription would be sent to whichever government hospital was designated.

"So convincing was he that my wife, asking that the subscription go to Fitzsimmons Army Hospital in Denver, gave him $3 in cash. She didn't sign any order, and he didn't give her any receipt.

"A NEIGHBOR GAVE the man $6 in the same way. And we've heard that this fellow has also been operating in Sleepy Hollow.

"This man says he's a disabled veteran and apparently he puts on a very convincing spiel.

"THE POINT IS: If his activity is legitimate and worth-while, it would be a simple matter for him to get a clearance from the Orinda chamber.

"Before you 'fall' for any solicitor's sympathy-line or 'sales talk,' make sure he has that clearance from the chamber."

According to President Ernest Poll of the Orinda Chamber, increasing numbers of complaints have been made by local housewives regarding door-to-door solicitors.

Moraga Hassle in Limelight; Fact-Meeting Monday Night

Preparations were pushed by the Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County this week for a public rally on the subject of Moraga Valley planning and on county planning in general.

However, Chairman F. R. Markland of the Emergency Committee, prior to a board meeting last night at Robert L. Guichard's home at 1190 Glen Road, Lafayette, announced that the rally has been postponed until a later date "when accommodations will be available." Previously, the rally had been planned for early March.

"We are still figuring on a public rally in the near future," Markland stated. "Tentative plans call for the gathering to be held at Acalanes High School.

"Our board wishes to thank the people and organizations of this area for the support and enthusiasm shown for such a rally."

MARKLAND ANNOUNCED that a general membership meeting will be held at Lafayette Town Hall at 8 p.m. Monday, at which the purposes of the new organization will be explained and where the public will be able to meet the Emergency Committee's officers and directors.

At last night's board meting, held as this issue of The SUN was going to press, committee assignments were expected to be made, according to Director Joe Zablocki.

Zablocki was named rally chairman at a board meeting last Monday night at the home of John Wibberley on Camino Pablo, Moraga. Zablocki is a member of the Inland Valley Improvement Association in Orinda and is temporary chairman of the Moraga Area Planning Council.

Named rally co-chairman was Ray Crist, secretary of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

AT THAT MEETING discussion included possibilities of broadening the base of Emergency Committee membership.

"I'm asking anyone in our area who has any ideas on the master planning controversy, particularly on Moraga Valley and Utah Construction Company's plans, to communicate with us, whether he agrees or disagrees with us," Zablocki said.

"The address of the Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County is Box 193, Moraga."

Stray Bikes in W.C. Substation

Anyone bikeless?

Sergeant Walter Young of the Sheriff's Substation in Walnut Creek reported three bicycles have been turned over to his office over the past week by finders.

One boy's bike was fished out of the creek near the home of William Hosford, 992 Hough Avenue, Lafayette. Hosford turned it over to the office Monday, Young said.

Robert Nelmes of 827 Rosedale, Lafayette, found an abandoned bike — male — along Moraga Road Saturday night. Young said Nalmes reported seeing an unidentified juvenile run away from the bike when he approached.

Mrs. Alma Daniels of 2017 Essenay, Walnut Creek, reported a girl's bicycle found abandoned near her home last week.

Young asks: "Owners please claim."

Saw Taken from Shed

A tool shed at the Miramonte High School site in Orinda was broken into and a Skill saw stolen, according to a report given the Walnut Creew Sheriff's Substation Wednesday morning.

No estimate of value was given, and other equipment was reportedly undisturbed.

General Romulo Will Address Rotary Dinner

General Carlos P. Romulo, former Philippine president, will highlight the observance of the Golden Anniversary of Rotary International when he addresses a dinner meeting of the 12 Contra Costa Rotary Clubs next Friday, March 4, at Diablo Country Club.

Rotarians from other clubs throughout the central part of the state and the bay area have also made reservations for the dinner.

AN OUTSTANDING international figure, Romulo was known as General Douglas MacArthur's right hand man during the early days of the war, before the Islands surrendered to the Japanese. He served MacArthur again on his return to the Islands.

Romulo in recent years has served as the first Philippine ambassador to the United Nations, president of the Fourth General Assembly of the United Nations and Philippine ambassador to the United States.

In appreciation of General Romulo's visit here, Contra Costa Rotarians have contributed more than 2000 of their favorite volumes from their personal libraries to stock the shelves of Cotabato, Philippine Islands, library, in a typical Rotary club project.

THE COCKTAIL hour has been set at 6:30 with dinner to be served promptly at 7:30 to permit the General to speak at the designated hour.

Among participating clubs are Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill.

Banquet Ticket Sales Are High

Local Rotary ticket sales for next Friday night's Rotary Golden Anniversary Banquet are near the 100 per cent mark, according to the Orinda club's president, George Eberhart.

The banquet will be at Diablo Country Club and will feature a talk by General Carlos Romulo of the Philippines.

Twenty-three Orinda Rotarians met jointly with the Berkeley club Wednesday noon at the Shattuck Hotel in Berkeley to view a Hollywood production of Rotary's history, entitled "The Great Adventure."

A new member, Paul Demeter, joined the Orinda club Wednesday, which was the exact day Rotary was founded 50 years ago.

Thomas Rezone Delayed a Month

County Planning Commission action on the controversial application of Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas for Retail Business rezoning of Lot 42 at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive was delayed Wednesday night until March 22.

Postponement was on request of both the applicant and the Orinda Association.

On hand at the commission meeting Wednesday night were separate letters requesting a one-month delay, from Attorney Carlisle Nielsen, representing Dr. Thomas, and from Zach Montgomery for the Orinda Association.

"Both sides are trying to work out some agreement," Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith explained yesterday.

TONI IS THE LITTLE MUTT TERRIER trained by Joe Simpson on his TV program and given away recently to a little girl from Newark, Calif., as a contest prize. Joe operates a School for Dogs, 3684 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Lafayette Dog Trainer's Experience Contains Everything But a 'Bite'

By DUANE MEYERS

He has been through a war with dogs, has trained them for many of his 36 years, and now appears on TV with his "School for Dogs," but never has one of his canine friends bit the hand that fed it.

That's part of the story of Joe Simpson, owner and head professor of dogology at Simpson's School for Dogs, 3684 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

JOE RECENTLY signed a 16-week conract to appear on KGO-TV, Channel 5, in a show called "Manners for Mutts," (Sundays, 5:15 to 5:30 p.m.).

He instructs owners and trains dogs right on the show, about housebreaking, tricks, obedience and etiquette.

Simpson has operated his dog school in Lafayette for almost five years. Between the end of World War II and 1950, Joe worked for kennels in Richmond, his wife Verna's home town.

HE VOLUNTEERED FOR the then newly formed K-9 Corps early in 1942, spent two years as one of the original instructors, and then volunteered for overseas duty.

With his canine partner, a German Shepherd named Aufra, Joe served in Italy on the always-dangerous patrol missions. The dogs in the unit were used as scouts and messengers.

Joe was asked if he won any citations.

HE LAUGHED. "I didn't, but my dog got two of them," he said.

He explained that Aufra was cited for running messages calmly through heavy shell fire and for carrying heavy telephone equipment from a command post to a forward unit.

The Minnesota lady who had donated Aufra to the K-9 Corps turned over ownership to Simpson during the war, and Joe brought Aufra with him to California.

Joe's voice, which still retails a faint New England edge (he's a native of New Hampshire), softened somewhat when he recalled that Aufra died here in Lafayette "a little over a year ago." She was almost 12 when she died.

Aufra was used in training other dogs for protection, Simpson said.

His school educates dogs mainly for obedience, Simpson said, but he takes dogs to be used for protection and trains them, also.

"I DON'T LIKE to see the average person have a dog for protection, because it's too much like having a loaded gun around the house," Simpson explained.

He added he trains dogs occasionally for men doing undercover work for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and for special police and watchmen.

The usual procedure at the school is for dogs to be entered for an eight-week course in obedience, and there are boarding facilities for pets left behind by owners on vacation.

WHO LEADS THE pack as the most popular dog in this area?

"It's pretty hard to say," Simpson state. "At the moment, I'm getting lots of German Shepherds. And he boxer is still popular, too."

As a hobby, Simpson started training Scotch boarder collies for sheep herders. This has led to an offer for Joe to put on an exhibition with the dogs, actually tending sheep, at the Oakland Dog Show in Oakland Auditorium March 5-6.

SIMPSON HAS developed his knowledge of dogs to the point where he can "tell within five or 10 minutes after seeing one whether it can be trained or not."

He added, "If a dog is too shy and afraid of people, as a rule, I won't try to train him."

And that's the dog's loss. He missed a good friend—Joe Simpson.

Scout Salute..

Cub Pack 211

Orinda Cub Scout Pack 211 met with their parents last Friday in the Community Church to receive monthly awards and reports.

Cubmaster Don Hutchinson announced a Webelos Den has been formed to prepare boys who have received their Lion badges for Boy Scouting.

ERNEST CHILTON is the den dad and John Dorn the Boy Scout representative.

Memebrs are Rickey Guinther, Lance Chilton, Tom Hutton, Jethro Lieberman, John Lemire and John Rinne.

Plans were made for a Father and Son Dinner March 18. The Redwood Bowmen will give a demonstration of their arching skill, and the boys have also been promised some surprise guests.

Dens 3 and 10 entertained the Pack with a clever train skit based on "She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain, When She Comes," and William Jaekle showed a film titled "My Railroad."

YEAR PINS WERE received by Cory Lowther and Ronald Kay and two year pins by Chris Felchlin, Dick Sutliffe and Robert Case.

Denner Stripes were awarded Roger Baldwin, David Texdahl, Ralph Reid and John Rinne. Richard Kay received his Wolf badge and Gold on Wolf. Ronald Kay also received Gold on Wolf.

Cory Lowther and Scott Huntley were awarded their Bear badges and Chris Felchlin, Garth Mudelson, Philip Gardner, Ronald Winkler and Barry Hutchinson received Gold Arrows on Bear.

Dick Sutliffe and Chris Felchlin also received a Silver Arrow on Bear. Lion achievement awards were presented to Chris Felchlin and Steve Baker.

Dad-Son Banquet

In observance of National Boy Scout Week, Cub Pack 212 held its annual Father and Son Banquet February 11 at Fellowship Hall in Orinda.

The Cubs' mothers provided the food. Following dinner, Cubmaster Carl Dudley conducted a short meeting, in which a large number of boys received awards.

Ricky Merriam received his Lion achievement badge and a gold arrow point. Roger Roos received another arrow point on his Lion. Denny Lucas, Eric Ramsing and Steve Beckett received their Bear achievement badges. Eric and Steve also earned a gold arrow point.

Steve Eldridge, Mike Yedidia, Jerry Loughman and Ti mPardini were awarded Wolf achievement badges. Mike also received a gold arrow point and Jerry gold and silver arrow points.

Bobby Lee received gold and silver arrow points on Wolf. John Watkins, Steve Greathouse and Mike Little were given Assistant Denner stripes.

Two-year pins went to Johnny Cooper, John Davison, Greg Peterson, Jay Jacobus and Paul Rieger, and a one-year pin was received by Hall Clement.

The Cubs gave a hearty welcome to Steve Brush as he became a Bobcat.

The affair was brought to a close with the showing of a color movie of the East-West football game by Jay Jacobus.

Father-Son Feed

On February 3 Pack 32 enjoyed a Father-Son dinner at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Those attending enjoyed a delicious ham dinner, movies of the San Francisco 49er team and other entertainment.

Fathers Robert Neuhaus and Don Woodcock were in charge of arrangements.

New Bobcats joining the Pack were Gregory Tutthll and Richard Meyers.

Other boys receiving awards were Jimmy Laurie, Ted Taylor, Alan Howard, Clint DeWitt, Jack Funk, Ernest Kahl, Terry McCann, Berry Catterton, Bill Stuart, Don Franklin, Wally Ruderick, Ricky Borden, Alan Howard and Carl Anderson.

Community

A six-weeks course in preparation for church membership is to begin tomorrow at the Orinda Community Church.

Designed for the junior and senior high school age, the instruction series will be jointly conducted by the Rev. Fred Morrow and Ray Welles.

THE HOUR HAS been set for 11 o'clock on Saturdays until April 2, and the class will meet in the church's Livingstone room adjacent to the chapel.

The two-hour membership information panels for prospective adult church members are also being planned, the first to be given Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the Livingstone room. Participating with the minister will be Mrs. Jeanne Watkins, Guild president, and Howard M. Dail, church moderator.

"WHAT MAKES Christianity Christian?" is the question that will concern the Rev. Morrow in his sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

At this service Margaret Popovich will present the junior choir singing "Praise to the Lord" by Pietatus.

At the memorial organ Daniel Popovich will accompany the choir and congregation, with Preparation, Offertory and Dismissal as follows: Bach's "Fantasia in G," Lemare's "From the South," and Dubois' "Grand Choeur."

FOR PARENTS of Sunday school children and for other adults there will be a continuation of Biblical studies on the Gospel of Mark, led by Mrs. Morrow following the 9:30 chapel service. At this hour there will be departmental and class groups for learners of all ages from the nursery upward.

The two youth groups will hold their meetings Sunday evening, the Junior Fellowship at 5:30 and the Seniors at 6:45. Both begin their programs in the Fellowship Hall and close with chapel services.

Lutheran

"Living on Pitch" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Edward R. Andersen, pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda at the 8 and 11 a.m. services Sunday.

The Sunday School meets for devotional services and classes from 9:30 to 10:30.

"Jesus Changes Us" is the theme of the Lenten services which will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Courtright Heads Nominee Group

Kenneth Courtright is chairman of a nominating committee for new officers of the Orinda Lions Club.

Nominations will be presented to the club March 9 and March 23, with elections scheduled for April 13.

Others on the committee are George Hartzell Sr., R. E. Wadsworth, Stu Wade and Al Burastero, with Floyd Mooney as alternate.

Baby Sitter Sues After Sea Voyage

Claiming she was injured while baby sitting—at sea, Daryl Broderick, 22, of 34 Ivy Court filed suit in Superior Court late last week for damages against her employers.

The suit asks $50,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Johnson Jr., of 51 Lombardy Lane and three other unidentified persons.

Miss Broderick, employed by the Johnsons as a baby sitter for their three children on a schooner voyage to the South Pacific, said the accident causing her injuries occurred February 21, 1954.

She declared the dinghy in which she was going in for a landing overturned in high surf off Clipperton Island, an uninhabited coral atoll in the Pacific, 1450 miles southwest of San Diego.

She maintained she suffered severe and painful injuries that left a permanent and disfiguring scar on her left leg.

Miss Broderick, daughter of Mrs. Betty Buttler, is a graduate of Acalanes High School and had been the Johnson baby sitter before the voyage.

Differences in 2 Parties Noted

"The differences between the Republican and Democratic parties in the United States, in terms of policy and leadership, are greater than between the Conservative and Labor parties in England."

This assertion was made by Professor Peter Odegard February 17, in exposing what he termed "the Myth of Tweedledee and Tweedledum" as applied to the two major parties.

Professor Odegard spoke before a capacity audience in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Church following a pot-luck supper sponsored jointly by the Orinda Democratic Club and the Democratic Women of Orinda.

Professor Odegard, chairman of the political science department at the University of California and former president of Reed College in Oregon, was introduced by Bud Thurston, president of the Orinda Democratic Club.

Among the other officers in charge of arrangements were Mrs. Ralph Reid, president of the Democratic Women of Orinda; Mrs. Forest Hill, membership chairman; Mrs. Cecile Ambler, treasurer; and Mrs. Dorothy Barden, chairman of ways and means.

New 'Y' Group Takes to Snow

A new group of "Indian Guides," called the Blackfoot Tribe, under the sponsorship of the YMCA, formed recently.

The tribe consists of boys in the first and second grades of Glorietta School, and their fathers.

First trip by the group was to the snow at Pinecrest, where tobogganing was enjoyed. Those who made the trip were:

Donald McConnell and son, Don; Bill Curtis and Steve; Carl Rigor and Paul; Ted Taylor and Bill; Ed Winthers and Mark; Bob Babcock and Scott; Ralph Miner and Bobby and Peyton Jacob and Peyton.

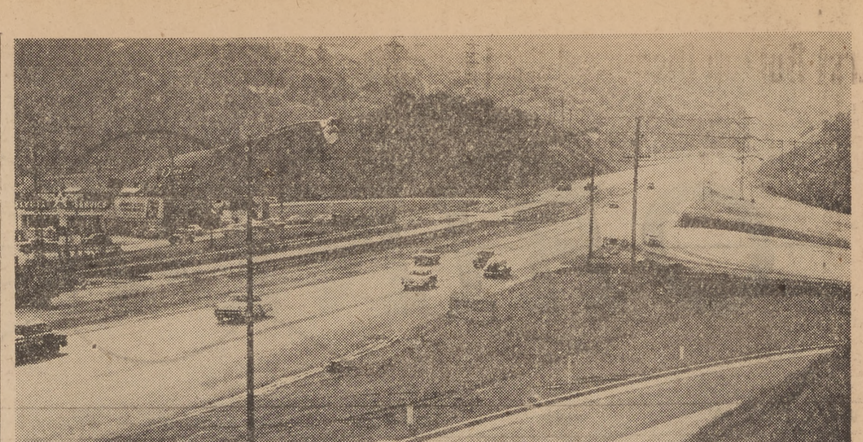
SANDRA JEAN YOUNG

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Young of 36 Southwood Drive welcomed their second daughter February 5 when Sandra was born at Walnut Creek Kaiser Foundation Hospital. She weighed 8 pounds 4½ ounces. Her sister is Laura Louise.

GIOVANNA MARIE PETRICCIANI

Giovanna is the first daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Petricciani of 142 Canon Drive. She arrived January 25 at Providence Hospital, Oakland, weighing 8 pounds 4 ounces. She has one brother, Bobby.



ORINDA INTERCHANGE is almost completed. This picture shows little traffic because it was taken Washington's Birthday, a holiday; but the absence of heavy traffic allows a clear view of the section where the 3-lane strip on the south side (the far side) remains to be paved, from the "south bridge" to where signals formerly were. This photo was taken northeast of the project. The underpass is toward the right. The old Crossroads (now no more) was approximately where the light-pole stands, in the foreground. —SUN Photo by Mattson

Local 'Piped' TV Protests to Be Heard Soon

Complaints against the "piped" television service, Television Transmission Incorporated, of Martinez, have led to a public hearing on whether or not the state has jurisdiction over the service.

The hearing, which is to be held in Martinez before the state Public Utilities Commission early in March, has grown out of complaints by 17 residents of Arlene Gardens in Walnut Creek.

ACCORDING TO Harold Mutnick, attorney for the 17, protests against alleged inadequacy of service by the company owned by William Gentry of Martinez, have come from other users of the service as well.

Mutnick said Hidden Valley, Sun Valley, Moraga, and Pleasant Hill users have contacted him over the situation.

Gentry's service receives televi-antenna and "pipes" them by cable for a fee to subscribers, most of whom live in hilly or "fringe" areas of the county.

According to Mutnick, the hearing is a test case to determine if the service complained of can be regulated as a public utility.

HE SAID, "This is the first case to my knowledge that involves television as such and attempts to establish cable antenna services as public utilities."

Gentry is represented by the attorneys Hoey, Hall and Conti of Martinez.

Mutnick lives at 755 Glenside Drive, Lafayette, and has offices in Oakland.

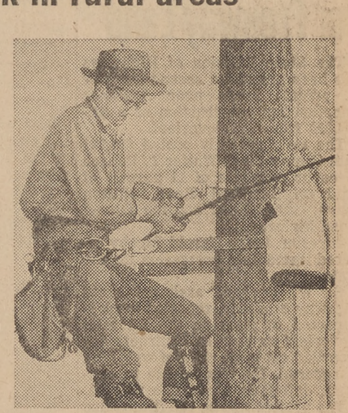
WHAT'S DOING

George A. Bauslaugh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

New type of voiceway goes to work in rural areas



The telephone cable being put up by this lineman is one of the newest things in the telephone business. It looks like nothing so much as an old-fashioned twist of licorice. But actually it's six pairs of wire coated with a special abrasive-resistant plastic. The new cable was especially designed for use in telephone lines in areas where homes are widely scattered. It's extremely light and easy to work with. And its cost in use is less than other kinds of wire. Savings like this help us keep good telephone service one of the best buys in your family budget. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Need tools in a hurry? Here's the place to find them

Seems like 'most everyone's a "do-it-yourself" fan these days. That makes this tip handy to remember: When you need new tools to start one of these jobs, a good place to look is in the Yellow Pages of your telephone book. Fact is, the Yellow Pages show where you can find 'most anything you want. That's because nearly everyone in town with something to sell advertises in them. So next time you need something fast, just turn to the handy Yellow Pages.

When you build or remodel

When you build or remodel, you'll want your home to have the modern features that contribute so much to its livability. And you'll want it as easy to run as possible, too. One of the best ways to take the "run" out of running a house is to have your builder or architect put built in telephone facilities in your plans. They save all those unnecessary steps from the kitchen or bedroom to the living room to answer the phone. And they cost so little. For more information, just call or drop in at your telephone business office. Pacific Telephone.

First Burton Dismissal Hearing Stormy

Opening arguments Wednesday night before the civil service commission in the appeal of the dismissal of George Burton by Sheriff Harry Brown indicate that it will be a long and stormy show before a decision is made.

Hearings were in process as The SUN went to press.

Burton, who was chief communications director for the Sheriff's Department and assistant director of civil defense, is appealing charges of insubordination, incompetency, conduct unbecoming an employee in the public service and inefficiency.

He was fired February 7.

THE FIRST HEARING, held in the Supervisor's chambers in the Hall of Records, was devoted to opening statements by Burton's battery of attorneys, George Gordon, Robert L. Condon and W. L. Wollitz.

Brown is represented by Francis P. Healey and David Holstrom.

In an effort to have the whole case dismissed, Gordon charged that no bill of particulars had been presented to Burton or his legal advisors.

He argued for nearly an hour that the charges, as set forth by Brown in his dismissal paper, were not specific and could not be used as grounds for dismissal.

The civil service commission, on the advice of District Attorney Francis Collins, over-ruled the objections and agreed to hear the case.

COLLINS SAID THAT if their were legal questions after the hearing is dismissed, they should be heard by a jury, but recommended that the hearings continue as planned.

In an opening statement Condon said he and his associates would "prove that the Sheriff had malice toward Burton because Burton had Brown transferred out of his department" several years ago when Brown was an employee of the Sheriff's Office.

Healy objected, pointing out that Burton was "on trial," not Brown, and that this statement was irrelevent and immaterial.

CONDON SAID these were "merely opening statements," and asked the commission if opening statements would not be permitted. The ruling was that opening statements would be permitted, but a member of the commission commented, "We are here to hear facts, not opening statements."

Brown was sworn in and examined by Condon as to specific conversations with Burton previous to his dismissal, the number of investigators assigned to the case, and his working relationship with the former communications director.

At one point Condon demanded a "yes or no" answer and Brown said "I can answer the question yes or no if you want to make me look like a chump, but I can tell you what happened if you will let me explain."

THE AUDIENCE LAUGHED and there was considerable applause. Brown was directed by the commission to explain.

All subpoened witnesses were directed to appear at the Hall of records again last night at The SUN was going to press and indications are that the hearings will continue for several nights.

Still to come it the presentation of Brown's case, additional cross-examination by Burton's attorneys and a final rebuttal by Brown's counsel.

The hearings are being broadcast over Radio Station KECC, starting at 8 p.m.

'Angels' Rehearse For March Opening

The cast of the Dramateurs' production, "My Three Angels," is rehearsing night and day for their March 11, 12, 18 and 19 evening performances at Berkeley High School Little Theater.

The play has just been released to Little Theater groups in this area after a successful run on Broadway.

It is Sam and Bella Spewack's version of a French comedy concerning three amiable prisoners at large on a tropical outpost in French Guiana in 1910. How these "angelic" rogues iron out the problems of a confused household in their own impudent but fetching manner makes a comedy well worth seeing.

An interesting fact concerning Paul Pollaczek of Orinda, who takes the part of Joseph (one of the Angels), is that Pollaczek went to school with Walter Slezak, stage and screen star, who played the same role on the New York stage.

Mrs. Karle Sterne and Peg Wright in charge of costumes for this production, report that men's clothing of this period (1910 and thereabouts) is difficult to obtain. If anyone has suitable wearing apparel tucked away in the moth balls and would be willing to air same please call Mrs. Sterne at CL 4-4279.

Rites Held for Dorothy Moore Brown

Private funeral services were held Monday for Dorothy Moore Brown, one of the founders of the Artists Market and Gallery in Lafayette.

Mrs. Brown, wife of Frank A. Brown, died Sunday in a San Francisco hospital after a short illness. The Browns lived on Springhill Road, Lafayette, from 1942 until December, when they took an apartment in San Francisco.

Mrs. Brown, a resident of the Bay Area 45 years, was noted as a portrait photographer in San Francisco for many years, and was active in art circles in Orinda, Walnut Creek and Lafayette.

With her at time of death were her husband and two sons, Gary, superintendent of schools at Boonville, Calif., and Dyke, vice-president of the Ford Foundation of New York. Mrs. Brown is also survived by seven grandchildren.

The family asks that remembrances be in the form of contributions to the Artist Market and Gallery, Lafayette.

Services were held at Halsted and Company, San Francisco, with interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, San Francisco.

'Highlands' Tract To Open Sunday

K/R's latest residential development, Lafayette Highlands, is opening Sunday.

The homes were built by A. R. Muth and Sons.

Fred Maisel, president of K/R Homes, said, "Here are homes that combine all of the features of a more expansive way of life . . . yet are offered at a price all can afford."

Maisel mentioned some of the features as ranch style design, beamed ceilings, covered porches, spacious living and family rooms with fireplace.

One of the model homes is being set aside in honor of the Olympic Games Fund. At this home, Olympic decals will be given to contributors helping to send the Olympic team to Australia in 1956.

To get to the development from Lafayette, one may go out Moraga Road to St. Mary's Road, turn left on St. Mary's to Solano, turn right on Solano and follow the Highlander signs to the homes.

Christian Science

Need for proofs rather than mere professions of Christian power will be stressed in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" to be read at services Sunday at Church of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Selections from the Bible include the following passages from the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5: 16): "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (233:1-5): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of the Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:9): "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him."

Jewish Center to Hold Barmitzvah

The first Barmitzvah to be celebrated in the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, Lafayette, will be tonight at 8:30. The event will highlight the regular monthly service.

Principal participant will be Ronald Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Hoffman of 3627 Bickerstaff Street, Lafayette.

Barmitzvah is symbolic in the Jewish religion of th entrance into young manhood of a boy when he reaches 13, and it can be likened to confirmation in other religions.

Rabbi Sidney Axelrod of Temple Beth El, Berkeley, will conduct the services. A reception will follow the ceremony.

The annual open house of the Sunday School will be held at 8:30 p.m. Monday. at the Center. All parents and their friends are invited.

Free Speech Plea In Talk on UN

"If freedom of discussion means no discussion of controversial issues, then all discussion is sterile."

So spoke John Merriman, Stanford University professor of political science, at the most recent of the Acalanes Education Associations' forums on "U.S. Foreign Policy—What Now?"

The forum, held February 15 at Acalanes High School, drew an audience of more than 60 local residents interested in the question, "Shall We Keep, Abandon or Remodel the UN?"

In arguing for a strong UN, Marriman attacked those in this country who are opposed to public and educational discussion of the UNESCO and other facets of world organization.

Merriman asserted, "It will take a strong UN capable of enforcing world disarmament to enable us to retain some control of our own identity."

Raymond Lawrence, political editor and writer, was unable to be at the forum as scheduled due to illness.

The next discussion of American foreign policy will be March 15 at 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. It will be on "Military Strategy in the Atomic Age."

Local Builders Unit Joins State Group

Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange has been chartered by California State Builders Exchange, it was announced recently Victor B. Engel, local executive secretary.

Local President Hans Wachsmuth Jr. of Danville was appointed delegate to the state unit and its auxiliary, Construction Industry Legislative Council.

"THE CLOWN WHO RAN AWAY" is the play to be presented tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Acalanes High School by the East Bay Children's Theater. These members of Orinda Brownie Troop 151 are depicted through an opening in stage-setting when they recently visited the theater workshop. Left to right are Lina Lieberman, Jane Seaman, Ann Curtis and Terry Kohler.

'Clown Who Ran Away' to be Staged for Kids Tomorrow

East Bay Children's Theater will present its second play of the season, "The Clown Who Ran Away," at Acalanes High School at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. H. C. Gathings of Lafayette, who is in charge of ushering for this performance, will be assisted by Mrs. James Seaman and Orinda representatives. Orinda Girl Scouts and Traffic Boys have also been asked to help.

"The Clown Who Ran Away" is directed by Florence Schwimley with a cast of Berkeley High School students.

It is a gay and charming story: Dodo, a clown, has run away from his circus and hopes to make a living by telling stories to children. He weaves a tale of many fascinating characters. Among them are Mr. Frumpkin, a doll maker, and his wonderful walking-talking dolls: Rudolph Bernard Boo, a terrible robber and his servant, Ugly, who steal the dolls; Gladys, a homeless horse; and many other colorful characters, including a parade of Dodo's circus friends.

Children's Theater members besides Mrs. Gathings who plan to be present include Mrs. Robert Pedder of Orinda, Mrs. Will Hall, Lafayette, Mrs. Stanley Bradshaw, Martinez, and Mrs. Frank Buck, Alamo.

Tickets may be purchased at the box office.

Cartoonist Will Speak to Artists

Members and friends of the Diablo Art Association are looking forward to an evening of entertainment by the creator of the famous Senator Snort.

Otto Lichty of the San Francisco Chronicle cartoon fame will speak at the Monday meeting of the association at 8 p.m. in the Guild Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Walnut Avenue, Walnut Creek.

All meetings are open to the public. President is Jessie Thomason.

Following the meeting coffee will be served, while a gallery of paintings is discussed.

Weimar Youths Surprised on Valentine's Day

More than 50 children and teenagers at Weimar Sanitorium were surprised Valentine's Morning when they received homemade Valentines and cookies sent to them by the Weimar Juniors.

The gifts were delivered to the children at the tuberculosis sanitorium by Mrs. Ernest Fernsten, Mrs. Abe Doty and Mrs. Lloyd Farrar, representing the Women for Weimar.

Along with the Valentines and cookies the women brought clothes for the children.

FOR THE TEENAGE girls the women brought ribbon, laces, veilings, beads and other articles that can be used to fashion hats and other items that take the fancy of young girls.

For the teenage boys, magazines and books were brought.

Weimar Juniors is an organization composed of Brownies, Girl Scouts, Cubs and Boy Scouts of the Orinda area, who for several years had assisted the children of Weimar.

Last fall it was decided to form a central body to channel the Weimar activities to avoid duplication. Weimar Juniors was formed and now provides the children at Weimar Sanitorium with cheer many times each year.

WOMEN FOR WEIMAR, parent group of this project, is spending time, energy and money on more ambitious goals, such as special movies, and is at present trying to raise money to buy at least two television sets for the children's ward.

The one set now in use must be wheeled from ward to ward and needs frequent repairs.

To help raise the needed funds, the Women for Weimar are planning a dessert bridge March 17.

Baldwin Votes No Pay Raise

Congressman John Baldwin announced this week that he voted against the bill for increased judicial and congressional salaries, but that it passed the house 283 to 118.

The measure would increase the salary of congressmen from $15,500 per year to $25,000.

He also joined four other congressmen in sending a letter to the appropriations subcommittee asking that funds for the four State Maritime Academies be restored in the budget proposed by the President.

Sheriff Happy With Reserves

Sheriff Harry A. Brown reports the Sheriff's Reserve Deputy program is moving into high gear under new organization policy. The reserves are shaping into a highly efficient county police organization, he said.

Brown also reported great pleasure from the existence of a well-organized reserve unit which will be used to augment the regular deputy sheriff patrol in a limited or unlimited police emergency.

The availability of this organization will expand the Sheriff's Department efficiency and increaset the existing patrol services over 300 per cent when placed under the direct control of the Lieutenant in charge of the regular patrol, he said.

Community Service Bureau Is Opened

A Community Service Bureau is now open from 9 a.m. until noon each weekday at the office of Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce, 1640 Main Street.

It is co-sponsored by the chamber and Contra Costa County members of Oakland Junior League. It will serve Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Danville, Concord and Martinez.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. William R. Channell of Lafayette and Mrs. James E. Cox of Martinez. Mrs. Ogden Kiesel is in charge of the speakers' bureau, Mrs. Frank Dickey, agency contacts, and Mrs. Ward A. Madeira Jr., publicity.

The office staff will include Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. John Glover, Mrs. Warren Yager, Mrs. Joseph Wilson, Mrs. Robert von der Lieth and Mrs. Jack Kramer.

Punchy Slogan Is Contest Subject

Contra Costa County Development Association has announced a contest among 19,000 secondary students for a brief and punchy county slogan suitable for descriptive and advertising use.

President George Bowersox announced the contest will close March 15, with a first prize of $50 for the winning slogan, $25 second prize and a $15 third prize.

The association will have the active cooperation of S. E. Ryan, member of the staff of County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson.

Ryan will furnish to all participating junior and senior high school students mimeographed copies of contest rules and a four-page descriptive Contra Costa folder.

Field Archery Club Planned

An organization meeting to form the Walnut Creek-Concord Archery Club will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Cal Giles, 1112 Peach Place, Treehaven.

It will be open to all field archers more than 16 years old and will affiliate with the National Field Archery Association, according to spokesmen.

Field archers are primarily interested in hunting and in California enjoy two special deer seasons exclusively for them as well as regular seasons, spokesmen added.

A roving field range is now being prepared and a juvenile club will be organized in the future, they added.

'Lakewood Plan' City Setup Told By Administrator

Representatives of Lafayette and Pleasant Hill Improvement Clubs heard in detail Monday night an explanation of the establishment and operation of the "Lakewood Plan" of local government administration.

Lakewood City Administrator Robert T. Anderson spoke at a meeting sponsored by the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce governmental affairs Committee, held at Lafayette School.

Richard Emory, vice-chairman of the committee, presided and introduced the speaker.

BY A 2 TO 1 VOTE, Lakewood, which is next to Long Beach, was incorporated in April, 1954, according to Administrator Andersen, on the issues of home rule, zoning and lower property taxes.

Other facts brought out by Andersen included:

Lakewood is a city of 6½ square miles, 15,200 homes, 71,000 population and no industry.

The city operates on a unique combination of contracts and assessment districts, a system of city-county government now nationally known as "the Lakewood Plan."

OPERATING WITH nine employees, as contrasted with the 300 or more normally required in cities of similar size, has resulted in a startling municipal economy.

In the first nine months of operation the city of Lakewood has achieved an operating surplus of over $200,000 and has given most of the residents an overall tax saving of 12 cents per hundred.

Local hom erule has been established for the first time.

"OF COURSE, the reason we were able to effect this savings," stated Andersen, "was because of certin monies available to a city in the form of subventions and grants from the state and county that are not available to unincorporated areas."

The County Road Department does all the street maintenance and construction by contract with the city, the speaker poined out. He added that the county sheriff renders law enforcement services and that the health, pound, assessor, auditor-controller, tax collector, district attorney and other county departments render services under various contracts.

Greyhound Will Check Bus Loads Once Each Week

Checkup of passenger loading on Pacific Greyhound Lines buses operating between Contra Costa points and San Francisco will be made one day each week by Greyhound, the Public Utilities Commission has announced.

The checkup and a report to the commission will be made as a result of a conference between James W. Mulgrew, director of transportation for the commission, commission engineers and a Greyhound representative.

The commission also announced that a re-examination of the afternoon schedule of buses from San Francisco to Contra Costa County also will be made to see whether the buses are leaving at the time loads are available and whether the schedule accurately fits the traffic pattern.

Commission engineers and Greyhound representatives visited Orinda Crossroads last week to make an on the spot survey to determine the best location for bus stops when the grade separation construction on the freeway is completed.

Players to Meet

Pleasant Hill Players will host Orinda Dramateurs, Lafayette Playshop, Walnut Creek Intimate Theater and Concord Masquers at a cocktail party from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nather, 3169 Baker Drive, Holbrook Heights.

Following a general discussion of plays, Pleasant Hill will decide on its next production from among "Country Girl," "All My Sons," "Claudia" and "The Guardsman."

Also invited is anyone interested in taking a part in any of the plays or meeting any of the little theater groups.

Jail Operational Changes Reported

Several changes recommended for County Jail and prison farm by two Alameda County penal officials have been put into effect, Sheriff Harry A. Brown announced Monday.

The survey of local jail operation was made by Lt. L. D. Temple and Lt. C. E. McMillan, chief and assistant chief jailers of Alameda County Sheriff's Department.

They found "an overall picture of splendid administration, a strict adherence to the California code governing jails and well kept files, particularly at the branch jail (the prison farm)."

Recommendations adopted here include banning pinups in cells, removing brooms and other implements from cells and storing them in a locker room, establishment of a central barber ship to eliminate the need for razor blades in cells, having jailers make telephone calls for prisoners so that they will not have access to phones and keeping all doors locked.

Other recommendations have been found impractical for adoption here, Brown said. Now under study is a suggestion an elevator be installed in the central jail, he added.

'Healing Power' Told in Lecture

Speaking under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Orinda, Ralph Castle lectured Monday night on "Christian Science: Healing by the Power of God," before an audience in the Orinda Community Church chapel.

Castle, noted lecturer on Christian Science from Belvedere, was introduced by Wallace Ballinger, a member of the Christian Science Church.

Describing Christian Science for his hearers, Castle said it presents "the spiritual rules applied by Jesus, which resulted in miracles and mighty works," and he cited several examples of healing and regeneration through the application of the Science.

ABE'S BIRTHDAY, TOO

We're kinda disappointed that Henry and June Olivera didn't name their new boy Abraham or Lincoln—the baby was born February 12.

The weekend found renewed outdoor activity after the recent rain. Many people inside, too, wielding those paint brushes.

Isabelle Salisbury and Bernice Jones have just completed papering and painting their kitchen.

The Hudsons have moved from Claudia's bedroom into the living room with their redecorating.

Anne and Jay Morris took an interesting trip. With the three children they visited a friend's country estate at a place called Camino, near Placerville. Many years ago Camino was a stagecoach stop. Their friends' home is 115 years old and full of memories and mementos of the Old West. According to Anne it was a paradise for children—which means all adults were happy—which means the Morrises had a wonderful weekend.

Russ and Alice Smith have their house up for sale.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Been a long time since we'd heard from Sandy Heinz so we called. Found that the Heinz family has had nothing but trouble the past few weeks. It started with chicken pox—both Susie and Dickie the victims.

At present—now that chicken pox has taken its leave, the whole family has the popular (ha!) stomach flu. Recovery is in sight, however.

Ken and Marianne Bailey spent a pleasant Saturday evening. The Baileys attended the Folk Dance Festival at Oakland Auditorium with two other couples. Ken and Marianne will continue their own folk dancing soon, now that Ken's back is better.

John and Laura Alegria entertained friends from Sacramento Sunday.

SPRING SONG

Barbara Barckley has real honest-to-goodness proof that spring is just around the corner. It must be thrilling for someone who formerly lived in Michigan to be able to go into the garden in February and pick a bouquet of sweet peas.

The Barckleys have planned a surprise party for friends from Ann Arbor, Mich., Sunday. It will be in celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor of Oakland. Barbara will offer her guests cocktails and a buffet supper.

SWIM SUITS

Interesting aftermath of the "Mardi Gras" dance was the telephone call received by Shirley Thaler. After reading this column about the dance last week, a woman called and asked Shirley if she would be interested in selling the costumes they wore for the dance—the old-time bathing suits.

Turned out that she wanted only authentic suits, however, and the Thalers' had been made for them especially for this occasion—in 1955!

Bill and Mary Gruver, Wayne and Helen Gardiner and Bob and Grace West were some of the Orchardites who attended the very successful Burton PTA dance last week.

Ardis Johnson has been named chairman in our area for the Red Cross drive.

KIDS' WISDOM

Every once-in-awhile our youngsters give us food for thought and point out a moral that has been forgotten along the path somewhere.

Last week one of those youngsters took it upon herself to offer her services to Marianne Righetti. Why? So that Marianne would have more time to work on Red Cross duties! This young lady is very modest so we won't mention her name. She proceeded to wash dishes, wash sox and perform several other household chores — freeing Marianne to make a few of the hundreds of calls she makes as a chairman in the Red Cross drive.

POOCH TAGS

Dorothy Ballachey urges dog owners to comply with the law that all dogs must be licensed yearly. Sheriff's deputies have been authorized to impound any dog without a license.

Dorothy provides this pertinent information: Send money to the County Pound, Box 148, Martinez. Enclose your name, address, phone number, and the sex and breed of your dog. License fees for a male dog are $2; a female, $3.50; and a spayed female, $2.

Who said TV is educational? There has been an epidemic of "ain't gots," "don't want nones" around the Blumenfeld household recently. When correcting 4½-year-old Mike the other day, telling him those phrases were not correct, he came up with this reply: "That's what the cowboys say on television!"

Community

The Rev. Chester R. Lewis will preach at both the 8:30 and 11 o'clock services at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church Sunday morning. His subject will be "The Christian and Moral Values."

Sunday School is at 9:30 a.m. and the N.Y.S. will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday.

A School of Evangelism will be held at Glide Memorial Methodist Church, San Francisco Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

There will be an executive board meeting of the W.S.C.S. Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. William Shelly on Moraga Road.

The Second Milers Club will have a "Musical" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cotteral at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Jane Miller, famous fashion designer of doll clothes, also will be present tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock with gifts for all little girls, it is announced by Olla Waldie, proprietor.

The new, larger quarters make possible further expansion of the firm's extensive line of toys, dolls, games, sporting goods, hobbies and crafts.

Don Seniors Get Info on Colleges

Representatives from colleges across the nation continue to meet with Acalanes senior class students by arrangement of the school counseling department.

Dr. Howard Brooks, assistant director of admissions, Stanford University, spoke to Acalanes seniors recently about admission requirements and educational opportunities at the Palo Alto university.

Other school representatives who have met with Don seniors this year include those from University of Oregon, Pomona College, Colorado Women's College, University of Southern California, Mills College, Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Golden Gate College of San Francisco, Stevens College for Women and Contra Costa Junior College.

Additional college representatives are slated to visit Acalanes during the balance of the year.

Trade information programs, contact with local apprenticeship programs and other terminal post school vocational instruction programs and information and individual counseling are provided those students who do not wish to attend college after completion of high school by the Acalanes counseling staff.

Firemen Called To Canyon Home

An overheated living room stove brought fire fighters to the home of Merle Mehl in Canyon early Wednesday morning.

A truck and the chief's car responded from the Moraga Fire Department, along with Moraga-Canyon Volunteer Firemen and a large group of nearby residents who heard the sirens at 2 a.m.

Observers reported no flame damage but some damage was done by smoke and water.

Kids' Matinee Has Canadian Mounties

The Children's Approved Matinee tomorrow at the Park Theater will feature "Renfrew of the Royal Mounted," the exciting adventures of the Canadian Mounted Police.

Doors open at 1:45, and the show starts at 2 p.m.

Westminster Club To Meet Sunday

The High School Westminster Fellowship Club of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church will meet at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Ken Clap, 3758 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, with pre-prayer circle at 6:15 p.m.

The pastor, Carl Thomas, will continue with the fifth in the series on "Boy-Girl Friendships." Joy deKorne will be in charge of the worship service. Transportation will be available in front of Lafayette School at 6 p.m.

The weekly potluck supper will be held Wednesday at the home of Joy deKorne. Those with last names beginning A to H bring dessert, I to M bring hot dish and N to Z bring salad.

The club will go to San Francisco next Friday to attend the carnival being sponsored by the High School-College Westminster Fellowship Club of the St. John's Presbyterian Church. Those interested in transportation should call CL 4-5502 or AT 3-2766 before next Thursday.

Episcopal

Starting a Lenten preaching mission for all members and friends of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, the Bishop Sumner Walters will conduct both sermon services Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m. in the mission on Via Las Cruces in the Charles Hill area of Orinda.

Bishop Walters will conduct special services Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at 10 a.m. and at 8 p.m., with personal conferences each afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30.

Bishop Walters, head of the Missionary District of San Joquin, received his Master's degree at Columbia after graduating from Princeton University. He studied at General Theological Seminary in New York City, and graduated to become curator of Trinity church in Lawrence, Kan.

He came to California in 1935 to assume the duties of rector at Christ Church in Alameda, and later became head of Trinity Church in San Francisco.

His election as bishop has resulted in great growth of the Episcopal church in the San Joquin area.

Presbyterian

"The Free and Costly Way to Prayer" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church. This is the third in a series of sermons on prayer by the Rev. W. Carl Thomas and will be based on the Book of Hebrews.

The service takes place in the Park Theater, Lafayette, at 11 a.m. and a nursery is provided in the Lafayette Town Hall.

Sunday School meets in the Town Hall at 9:40 and an adult class is held in the theater at the same hour.

Mr. Thomas will be officially installed as pastor at a special service Sunday evening in the Town Hall.

Lutheran

Pastor Merle Tollefson will preach on the theme, "The Way of Decision," Sunday morning at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane. The two services are at 9:30 and 11.

Sunday School grades four through high school meet at 9:30 and pre-school through third grade students meet at 11. Senior and junior Luther Leagues convene at 7:30 p.m., and at 8 p.m., Mr. Tollefson will meet with the Adult Class, to discuss "The Bible, Our Book of Authority."

Sunday School teachers' meeting will be Tuesday evening in the Fellowship Hall, with Superintendent Oliver Graham.

At 8 p.m. Wednesday, Mr. Tollefson, following the theme, "The Christ of Lent," will discuss the subject, "Offensive to His Own." The series of Lenten meditations will be chosen from the Book of Mark.

Women's Bible Class meets at 10 a.m. Thursday, Willing Workers Day. Youth choir practice is at 7 p.m .and senior choir practice is at 8 p.m., Thursday.

Other meetings scheduled: Board of Parish Education, 9 a.m. Saturday; Junior Confirmation class, 10 a.m. Saturday; junior choir practice, 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

The Rev. Thomas To Be Installed

Official installation of the Rev. W. Carl Thomas as pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church will take place at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Lafayette Town Hall. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Dr. Franklyn Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Oakland, will preside and propound the Constitutional Questions; Dr. Gerritt Verkuyl, translator of the Berkeley edition of the New Tesament, will lead in prayer and scripture.

Dr. Robert Munger, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, will deliver the sermon; the Rev. James pshaw, pastor the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, will give the charge to the people; and the Rev. James Crothers, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will give the charge to the pastor.

Refreshments will be served at a socal hour following the service.

Selling Your Home Can Prove Exciting

By CLAIRE L. JEFFREY

Owning a home in Lafayette, Orinda or Walnut Creek is rewarding and satisfying. Hiring a real estate agent to sell your house takes little effort. But trying to sell your home can be an exciting experience.

Prepare in advance by taking three baths a day, as bathing is out of the question during the selling period, except between the hours of 1 a.m. and 6 a.m.

Phone calls occur and could-be buyers appear at all other times.

TAKE ALL THE DOORS off your closets as they are sure to stick when a prospective buyer opens them.

Break your thermostat. This is so much easier than trying to explain why the temperature reads 76 degrees when you have it set for 72 degrees.

Have bucketfuls of dirt ready for immediate use if you sell in rainy weather. You can fill in water holes every hour and won't have to apologize for any kind of drainage problem.

The enterprising real estate man brings many prospective buyers. And, of course, the actual buyer emerges from the various visitors.

But there is, of course, the probability of odd types of people coming around. For example:

1. THE KNOCKER

This fellow, usually accompanied by an adoring wife, no sooner enters your home than he begins to knock on every inch of every wall.

Perhaps he hopes the termites will answer back.

2. THE FAMILY

By the "family" we mean mom, pop and their five children. Obviously your home is too small to house the group; but they all enjoy themselves while "looking."

Trouble is, mom and pop are the only ones who just look.

3. THE TEAR-JERKERS

They are a nice young couple with an infant in tow. They are extremely polite an friendly.

They obviously need a house, and explain they are living in a one-room apartment without running water and will be evicted next week.

Only trouble is they have no down payment.

4. THE CUNNING MATHEMATICIAN

This character never asks what originally paid for your house but he does everything in his power to find out.

First he inquires about the balance on your mortgage; then he asks the per cent of interest; then he asks when you started paying and when it will be paid off.

All this time he is madly writing down figures and he comes up with the remark, "What kind of improvements have you made?"

He didn't really intend to buy, anyway. He's just studying for a degree in accounting.

Students Form Catholic Group

A Catholic group of high school students was recently organized in the Santa Maria Parish of Orinda.

A Valentine party was held in their new hall February 12, and other events are planned for the near future.

Those helping to decorate the hall were Midge Raymond, Gale Sheehan, Judy Meyers, Sylvia Coffey, Mary Anne Drysdale, Betty Clark, Gerry Gillivan, Chuck Stefanetti and Dick Clark.

Chaperoning the dance were Mr. and Mrs. William Siefker, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mrs. L. C. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clark, and the group's chaplain, Father David Harrington.

Recently elected officers are Dick Clark, president; Joe Sheaff, vice-president; Gale Sheehan, secretary; Dodie Riley, treasurer, and Betty Clark, social secretary.

Any interested Catholic high school students are invited to call Dick Clark, CLifford 4-2559.

Politics Discussion Group Is Now Open

Registrations are now being taken for a world politics discussion group which will begin Thursday at Acalanes High School and continue through 10 consecutive Thursdays.

Prepared by the American Foundation for Political Education, the course of study is sponsored by University Extension, University of California.

Participants read assignments excerpeted from important political writers ranging from Plato to Mussolini and Lincoln to Marx. They then discuss what they have read at class meetings.

Registration costs $12 per person or $18 per couple and includes a set of three volumes that contains source material. Arrangements may be made through Acalanes Adult Center or University Extension.

Titles of the 10 meetings are Introductory Session, State and Individual, Democracy, Communism, What Causes War?, Balance of Power and Power Politics, Domination, International Law, World Government and Means and Ends in World Politics.

Rheem Tract Plan Under Advisement

Taken under advisement by the County Planning Commission February 15 was D. L. Rheem's request for approval of plans for a proposed 47-lot subdivision near the Rheem shopping Center in Moraga Valley.

Designated as "Tract 2152" on the commission's agenda, the proposed subdivision would be located along Rheem Boulevard, west of Jonas Hill Road.

The commissioners said they would not act on the application until a geologist's report on slide potentials is submitted.

Frank Draeger, engineer for Rheem, stated that he expected to have a report from Chester Marliave, geologist, in the near future.

According to Mrs. Mazie Salter of the Planning Commission's technical staff, the proposed lot sizes comply with the Residential-Agricultural half-acre minimum zoning in effect.

Average lot size in the new subdivision would be 100 by 320 feet, or 32,000 square feet.

Group Asks for Road Widening

The Moraga Meadows Association decided to continue efforts to improve Glorietta Boulevard at a meeting February 17 at Glorietta School.

Newly-elected President William H. Cary was in charge.

The association decided to request the county to widen the west shouldre of Glorietta by 5 feet, from Robert Road to Sally Ann Road.

This, the group contends, will give school children safety in walking to and from school.

Mrs. Martin D. White, secretary, is presenting the request in a letter to the County Road Commissioner's office.

County Air Patrol Being Organized

Organization meeting for a Contra Costa County Sheriff's Air Squadron was held recently at the Clayton home of Randall (Chubby) Humle.

Purpose of the volunteer group will be to perform emergency services at the request of Sheriff Harry A. Brown and civil defense agencies.

Members of the board of directors are Milan Haven, Tom Davis, Warren Boggess and Jim Graham, all flight school operators at Buchanan Field; Frank Jackl of 1039 Esther Drive, Pleasant Hill, and Humble.

Deputy Sheriff Louis Skuce will handle liaison between the newly organized group and the sheriff's office.

Charter members include Lewis Young, 1540 Pleasant Lane, Lafayette; Wes Stetson, 2018 Treadway Lane, Walnut Creek; Westin Lewis, 2696 Richard Avenue, Concord; Jim Wisman, 3314 San Ramon Road, Concord; Cyde Jolley, 2926 Humphrey Avenue, Richmond, and the directors.

A total membership of 25 is sought.

Church to Hold Scouting Meet

As part of its plans to sponsor a Boy Scout troop, Orinda Community Church will hold a "Get Acquainted with Scouting" meeting next Friday at 8 p.m.

G. E. Wilder, a member of the Meridian District Committee on Organization and Extension, will present information on how to form a new troop.

The Rev. Fred Morrow will preside and the church's Board of Christian Education will be represented.

Parents of boys eligible for the scouting program are urged to attend, according to A. C. Flenner, who has been working out details for a new troop.

The meeting will be at the church.

State Bills Can Be Seen in Martinez

Assemblyman Donald Doyle has supplied to the Contra Costa County Development Association in Martinez a complete file of bills introduced at the first half of the session of the legislature. They are open to inspection by interested persons.

Judy Courtright Hostess at Party

Judy Courtright, daughter of the W. G. Courtrights on La Madronal, entertained a number of her seventh grade friends with a Valentine party that included a buffet supper, dancing and games.

WARMING UP

Unless equipped with an automatic choke, let your car motor warm up before you drive out into traffic. It's unfair to the other drivers to be delayed by a sputtering, coughing engine and it's dangerous, too. It's your responsibility to see that your car is in good condition and that means ready to drive.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 931

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DECLARING VEHICLE PARKING DISTRICT NO. 1 OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA (ORINDA CROSSROADS) DULY FORMED

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, does ordain as follows:

SECTION I. The Board of Supervisors finds and declares that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition and improvement described in Section II, and that the property proposed to be acquired as described in Section III is necessary for the purpose therein set forth.

SECTION II. The Board of Supervisors finds and determines that the petition for the formation of Vehicle Parking District No. 1 is signed by the owners of more than sixty per cent (60%) in area of the property subject to assessment for said proposed improvement, who have waived the provisions of Sections 2800, et seq., of the Streets and Highways Code, and the Board further finds and determines that no protests, written or otherwise, have been filed to the formation of said District.

SECTION III. The Board of Supervisors declares formed Vehicle Parking District No. 1 (Orinda Crossroads) and declares that said Parking District shall include the following described territory:

Around Orinda

By Beverly Hoyt, CL 4-5233

RENO WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Larsen recently celebrated their anniversary by staying at the Hotel Mapes in Reno for the weekend.

Several Orindans will be on hand to honor Miss Meryle Swift and John Thompson at a party given by the Tom Howards and Frank Dieteys.

Guests will include the Ward Madeiras, George Quists, Alanson Brooks and the John Le Gros, who have recently returned from New York and have rented a house in Sleepy Hollow.

June Thaw entertained her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Yeats, who visited here from Portland. They were here for a week, which gave them plenty of time to see the sights of San Francisco.

Another recent visitor to our community was Mrs. G. B. Kling of North Bend, Wash., who visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kling.

SNOW PLANS

A wonderful trip to the snow is being planned by the Paul Greggs, Norm Millers, Jack McCafferys, Zook Todds and Hollis Jones for the weekend of March 12. They will be staying at the Tahoe Biltmore, and will be making ski trips to Squaw Valley.

Another couple of travelers were the Chester Lincolns, who recently spent 10 days in Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pixley helped celebrate a 10-year reunion of Berkeley High School grads on February 5 by attending a cocktail party given at the Claremont Hotel.

Teen Dance at Country Club

Teen agers will take over the Orinda Country Club tomorrow night when 350 high school students dance to the music of Bob Soder's orchestra.

The party is sponsored by the Club and the Orinda High School Mothers Club, and is the first such event for teenagers.

Chairman of the adult committee in charge is Mrs. Roger Stark, with Mesdames Nathaniel Dodge, Norman Tuttle and Joseph Conley.

The student committee is composed of seniors Jim Sweet, Bev Wall and Janice Armstrong; juniors Joe Sheaff, Bob Johnson and Jackie Fraser; sophomore Gayle Sheehan and freshman Dave Brown.

Dancing starts at 9 p.m. and a buffet dinner will be served at 11:30 p.m.

Alumnae Choose Show Models

Panhellenic's spring fashion show luncheon is to take place at 12:30 p.m., March 8, at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Before an expected crowd of 1400 people, 49 models will display the latest in wearing apparel from Saks Fifth Avenue in San Francisco.

Collegiates and alumnae have been selected as models from the 24 University of California sororities.

Models chosen from Orinda are Mrs. Fred Crawshaw, Alpha Phi; Mrs. Gordon French, Delta Gamma; Mrs. C. W. Brown, Delta Sigma Epsilon, and Mrs. Robert James, Pi Beta Phi. Mrs. William T. Barrows, Alpha Gamma Delta, of Lafayette, was also chosen.

Proceeds will add to the scholarship fund which helps high school and college girls obtain a higher education.

Gardiner-Cope Nuptials Read

Honeymooning in Southern California are newlyweds Patricia Jean Gardiner and Foster Francis Cope Jr., who were married Saturday afternoon in Orinda Community Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anderson Gardiner of Orinda and of James Harding Gardiner of Oakland.

Miss Mary Ann Gardiner was the one attendant upon her sister and Dale Wayne Parks of San Francisco was best man.

The benedict's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Foster Francis Cope of San Mateo.

The Rev. Fred Morrow read the double ring service. Patricia's gown was a princess style of lace over satin, with three quarter sleeves and a ballerina length skirt.

Fathers Take 'Confident' Slant on Kids

Dads who represented the Orinda Nursery School in the annual Father's Panel discussion on discipline recently were unanimous in their confident approach to the subject.

Cyril Atkinson, assistant professor of engineering at the University of California, and father of two girls aged 5 and 7, keynoted the debate with the observation that most youngsters seem to be born with basic instincts necessary for civilized behavior, and that discipline is merely a matter of molding these instincts.

"One word and then a swat" when dealing with 3, 4 and 5 year-olds is effective, Atkinson continued.

WHAT ABOUT the children who seem to lack these basic instincts? Mrs. Henry Harris, nursery school teacher, suggested that life at nursery school would be simpler if it were possible to screen out that variety.

Panel member Stanley Hunn, father of two boys aged 4 and 10, defined discipline as "doing what my wife says has to be done."

All panel members agreed that father should not be an ogre used as a threat by mothers.

Elbert Wayne, sales engineer and father of a 4-year-old girl, held that parents should reflect on mistakes made by their own parents, and that discipline should definitely be a cooperative affair.

On how to deal with the destructive child, Eugene Estes, civil engineer and father of one boy aged 3½, found that friendly attention towards young neighbors bent on malicious mischief had positive results.

Atkinson volunteered that destructive children should be given something to destroy.

Moderator Art Henry piloted the panel members through the gamut of leading questions. A series in the nursery school's program for parent education, the discussion was held February 9 at the Orinda Community Church.

Local Groups Prepare for Easter Fair

In Orinda, the Children's Hospital of the East Bay has two active groups of women helping to continue the enormous charitable task of defraying expenses at the hospital for those less fortunate who need attention.

These branches are Orinda Branch and Lombardy Branch.

The benefit Easter Fair at the Claremont Hotel to be held from Thursday night through Sunday, March 6, combines their labors with those of all other branches, to insure its success as in previous years.

KICKOFF IS Mardi Gras, Thursday night, from 7 o'clock to midnight. Both Orinda branches are staffing booths to help carry out the carnival spirit.

Among those working that evening will be Messrs. and Mesdames Edward de Laveaga, Cecil Cantrilla, Fred Goodwin, Joseph Downs, Robert Bolman, Berton Kohler, Miles Sutliffe, Clinton De Witt, Lloyd Hecathorn, C. F. Borden, Bill Brock, Richard Kendall, James Freeman, Robert Lyman, Emmett Fitzpatrick and Curtice Clark and Drs. and Mesdames Arthur Lundblad, James MacDonald, Woodburn Lamb and James Seaman.

Chairmen of Mardi Gras night for the two branches are Mrs. R. L. Kocher for Lombardy and Mrs. Frank Fee III for Orinda Branch.

ON THE MEZZANINE floor all the days of the Easter Fair will be displayed over 100 table settings for every occasion, breakfast tray to formal dinner. Mesdames Stephen Jensen and William Scatena have captured the Orental feeling for their table settings.

Friday noon 1600 women will witness one of the outstanding fashion shows of the season, resented by Capwell's and filling all the dinings rooms at the Claremont.

Planning to attend from this area are Mesdames Robert Pridemore, Hugh MacIntyre, Fred Bussey, Robert Hampton, Dan Carter, Alan Waddell, Robert Maddox, William Young, Lawrence Collins, Nels Hamberg, William Witter and Harry Peck.

MODELING FROM the branches will be Mesdames Rudy Rasmussen and John, also Master Darryl Maddox and Katie MacDonald.

All through Saturday, March 5, small fry will fill the Salem Room, being entertained by clowns, seals and dog tricks.

A dinner-dance is planned for that Saturday evening, a Sub-Deb Fashion Show for Saturday afternoon, a movie series on India Sunday night, March 6, and "Born to Adventure," a lecture by Baron Hans de Meiss-Tueffen will be given Friday night.

IT'S STILL not too late to get your tickets.

Call Mrs. Dan Carter, CL 4-5757, or Mrs. Beach Dean, CL 4-2243, for additional information.

Speaker to Tell Of Garden Shows

"Let's Enter a Garden Show" will be the subject of the program of the Orinda Garden Club Thursday.

The speaker, Mrs. Ralph Coffey, a well-known amateur gardener, will supplement her talk with color slides of entries in both the California Garden Show in Oakland and the International Garden Show in Los Angeles.

The Orinda Garden Club meeting will be held at Orinda Country Club at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Coffey has long been interested in garden shows, having attended a school for exhibitors. She has served as program chairman for the California Federation of Garden Clubs.

Mrs. Edward Rogers is program chairman for Thursday's meeting.

Connecticut Freind Visiting Gores

The Challiss Gores of La Vuelta, Orinda, have had as their house-guest Mrs. Leslie Brenneman of Greenwich, Conn.

The Gores showed their friend a lot of the Bay Area, including a trip to Muir Woods. A luncheon was given in Mrs. Brenneman's honor by Mrs. Eugene Ince of Lafayette.

YES, YOU CAN do something about taxes, government, local problems. Keep informed, participate, and vote.

Carola Courtright Is Wed

Carola Courtright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Courtright of 10 Ardilla Road, Orinda, became the bride Saturday evening of Bruce H. Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Harding of Danville Highway, Walnut Creek.

The Rev. Fred Morrow officiated in Orinda Community Church chapel.

AS IN PREVIOUS weddings in the bride's family, an embroidered white silk shawl was used as the alter cloth. Originally hand-made in Spain, it was worn at the first Inaugural Ball in California and is believed to be over 125 years old.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory antique taffeta. The yoke, of lace which had been brought from Brussels by the bride, was adorned with seed pearls.

A fingertip veil trimmed with heirloom lace was held in place by a Juliette cap of the same lace. She carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of white roses and white bouvardia.

MISS DODIE BEE of Orinda was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Molly Huber of Piedmont and Mrs. Edward Holden, (the former Harriet Harding), together with a junior bridesmaid, Miss Kay Courtright, the bride's sister.

The attendants wore ballerina length, princess style dresses of delft-blue taffetta, with matching veils held by blue clips. They carried nosegays of pink carnations and Garnet roses.

Mrs. Courtright was garbed in a dusty rose brocaded gown with jeweled neckline and blue accessories. Her corsage was cymbidium and blue hyacinths.

BEST MAN was Leigh Freeman of Lafayette. Warren Harding of Pleasanton, Roger Harding of Fresno and Edward Holden of San Andreas were ushers.

The bride attended Acalanes High School, Mills College and the University of California, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

The benedict, also an Acalanes graduate, majored in economics at Cal, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu.

RECEPTION FOR the newlyweds was at Berkeley Women's City Club.

After their honeymoon on High Sierra ski slopes, the couple will be at home in Danville.

Showers for the bride were given by Dodie Bee in Orinda, Molly Hober and Connie Lou Dunn in Piedmont and Janet Chantler in Orinda. A tea was held by Mrs. Harding at her Walnut Creek home, and a spinster dinner was held at the home of Molly Huber.

Family Dinner Party Notes Engagement of Dodie Bee

Names printed on Hawiian luggage tags attached to champagne glasses revealed the engagement of Dodie Bee, at a family dinner party February 17 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonie Bee of Las Vegas Road, Orinda.

Dodie is engaged to Lieut (JG) William Paul Bartz, USNR, now stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bee and their daughter flew in the Tuesday preceding the dinner party. The trio spent three weeks in Hawaii, most of the time at the Halekulani on Waikiki and at The Breakers.

Dodie and her fiance met a year ago when she went to Honlulu with the Howard tour. They were introduced by one of his officers, Lieut. (JG) Harry Leslie Wells Jr., USN, who is married to Dodie's Pi Beta Phi sorority sister, the former Barbara Davis.

Miss Bee and Bill have been engaged since August. They plan an early summer wedding in Orinda.

The future bride attended the University of California for two years and now attends UCLA. She will be graduated in June. At Berkeley she was a member of Linden Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Lieut. Bartz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Bartz of Benton Harbor, Mich. He is a graduate of Beloit College in Wisconsin, where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

Carol Racine Is Betrothed

Candy passing at the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority House at the University of California heralded the engagement of Miss Carol Racine on Valentine's Day.

Carol is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Racine of 3353 Springhill Road, Lafayette, and is a sister of Mrs. Arnold Runo of Orinda.

Her fiance is Randall Wilde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Drummond Wilde of Oakland.

They are planning a summer wedding, after Carol is graduated from Cal, where she is affiliated with the Linden campus branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, and Gamma Phi Beta.

Carol is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

Her fiance received his engineering degree from Stanford University where he was affiliated with Theta Xi fraternity. He is now with Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica, which will be the future home of the couple.

Thetas Planning Founders' Tea

Reservations for the observance of Founders' Day by members of Kappa Alpha Theta, oldest women's social fraternity, may be made by Diablo Valley Theta alumnae with Mrs. Kerry Keresey, president, by Tuesday, it was announced today.

Members of the Diablo Valley Theta alumnae club will join other Bay Area members at a Founders' Day tea at 3 p.m. Saturday, March 5, at the Theta house in Berkeley, Mrs. Keresey said. Tickets are $1 and reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Keresey at CLifford 4-2176.

The Diablo Valley Thetas, in addition to social activities, are now supporting a speech therapist for the School for Guidance of Retarded Children of Contra Costa County, located at Walnut Creek, the group's president announced.

Joan Scheuer, Gilbert Boucher Betrothal Told

Cocktail napkins and match books imprinted with the names of Joan and Gil were the means of telling family and close friends of the engagement of Miss Joan Scheurer of Lafayette and Gilbert B. Boucher of Riverside and Berkeley at a recent cocktail gathering Sunday afternoon at the home of the future brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Scheurer, 3364 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette.

Joan is a graduate of Acalanes High School and is now attending San Francisco State College, where she is a member of Delta Sigma Nu Honorary Society.

Gil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Crumley of Riverside, is a former student of the University of California, Berkeley campus, and is presently completing his undergraduate study at San Francisco State College.

No definite plans have been made by the newly affianced pair.

Joan Johnston Will Be Bride Of Gordon Zane

Announcement that Joan Lynette Johnston of Orinda, sixth grade teacher at Burton School, Lafayette, will wed Gordon Zane Sunday, March 6, at St. Clement's Church, Berkeley, was made this week by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Samuel Johnston of Cedar Rapids, Ia.

The future benedict is the son of Mrs. A. W. Westover of Riverside, Calif.

Miss Johnston attended Grinnell College and the State University of Iowa. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, the American Association of University Women and the Junior League.

Her fiance served in the Navy during World War II. He received his economics degree from the University of California.

At present he is connected with the restaurant business and is on the board of directors of Uranium and Strategic Minerals, Inc.

IT WAS A LARK, ALL RIGHT! Reference, of course, is to the Lafayette Larks' third annual "Mardi Gras" at Rancho Grande, Lafayette, held Saturday night for the benefit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Here the just a few of the many moments of merriness. At left, Mrs. Edward Janes, with "Harvard" proudly proclaimed on her hat, has a serious discussion with Dr. Lyall Bishop ("Gorgeous George"). Next picture is of Mrs. Anton Eberle performing the hula. Third photo portrays the "sea-going" attitude of Bill Racine (left), Marguerite Racine and Bob Underhill. Picture at right shows Mel and Cita Nielsen in the costumes that resulted in their winning the "most unusual couple" prize.

300 Costumed Revelers at Mardi Gras

Three hundred guests garbed in an array of costumes enjoyed themselves Saturday night at the Lafayette Larks' third annual Mardi Gras in Rancho Grande.

Proceeds go to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, of which the Larks is an auxiliary unit.

THE REVELERS gathered at the bar at 7 p.m., after cocktail parties at various members' homes, including the Jule Lindseys', the William Harris' and the Louis Capras'.

Mardi Gras ladies received orchids donated by Harold Levey of the Super Saver.

Judging the costumes were Adele Springman, Terry Ligon, Gladys Shierry and Doff Herman. They selected the following prize winners:

MR. AND MRS. TERENCE Ring as Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy, Best Couple; Mrs. Jackson Davis as a Christmas Tree in green satin and glittering baubles. Best Woman; Paul May as a circus bareback rider in "alluring" pink tulle and blond wig, Best Man.

The Mel Nielsens were given the Most Unusual Couple prize. Mrs. Lyle Bishop, disguised as a bird watcher, walked off with the door prize, a large basket of hors d'oeuvres and wine.

Jack Schneider, as Roy Rogers, ad libbed his way through the awarding of the prizes. Leon Pasco's five-piece band played for dancing.

DURING THE STEAK dinner, an Exercycle, piloted by Jule Lindsey and an "obese" female who turned out to be glamorous Shirlee Marchant, brought forth gales of laughter. The Exercycle was later sold in a Dutch auction.

Some of the people and costumes particularly noted were Dr. and Mrs. Sam Smith in Norwegian national dress, Bill Fry as Sherlock Holmes, Mildred Grover as a lamp post at Powell and Geary, along with a lamp post leaner resembling Garry Grover.

Also Barbara McAuliffe as a Tibetan Princess, the Lynn Stanleys, Bill Diehls and Tom Olivers as convicts, Ray Mathews as a tramp and his wife, Rose, as a harem dancer.

SATAN CAME IN the person of Dr. Ken Caldwell, and his wife, Mary Jane, vamped as a Vampire. Mary Jo Tohmson, a sleek toreador, led a towering but docile bull around, the latter answering to the name of Bob.

On a "lost weekend" was Mrs. Jack Pedder, as a pink elephant. Adele Springman was a South Sea native, pursued by husband Philip as a sailor. The Fu Manchus were Ted Boevers and Charlie Mae. The Capras came in circus garb, as did the John Paulines, the Paul Mays and Jeri Fry.

Those in charge of the gay event were Mesdames Jule Lindsey, general chairman; Shirlee Marchant, Robert Hoedel and Frank Dees, decorating; Louis Capra, entertainment; Philip Springman and Athur Westlund, prizes, and Ralph Ligon, tickets. The Larks expressed thanks to Al Montara for his "excellent cooperation."

Women to Aid Retarded Children

Mrs. H. J. Scarborough of Walnut Creek, director of guidance for Retarded Children of Contra Costa County, Inc., gave an interesting talk on her work and accomplishments of the group working with her at the February 14 meeting of the Pleasant Hill Women's Club.

It was followed by a question and answer period. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Glenn Hixson, program chairman.

Copies of Assembly Bill 323 relative to the sale of objectionable publications to minors were distributed and the membership urged to write to Assemblyman Donald Doyle concerning the passage of the bill.

THE CLUB VOTED to send a check to add to the scholarship fund of a nursing student.

Mrs. Leonard Griffiths, co-chairman of the ways and means committee, announced a sale of baked items will be held tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Louis Store on Oak Park Boulevard and at the Pleasant Hill Food Center on Gregory Lane and Pleasant Hill Road.

Assisting Mrs. Griffith will be Mesdames Ernest Parrish, Ray Adams, Arthur LaFond, Norman Donsiko, H. W. Rand, James Brown, Robert Burley, George Cail, William Dooley, Edwin O'Brien, Robert Heronymous and William Wright.

Proceeds will be used to help Retarded Children of Contra Costa County, Inc.

BEFORE THE MARCH meeting, which will start with a potluck supper and program at the Diablo Vista Elementary School, many members will hold card parties in their homes. Proceeds will be added to the general fund.

A valentine motif was carried out in the refreshments served at the last meeting by Mrs. Harold Jachens, hostess.

PTA, Dads to Meet Jointly

There will be a joint meeting of the Lafayette PTA and Dad's Club on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Lafayette School auditorium.

Mrs. Ellen Jackson, parent education chairman of the PTA, will introduce the guest speaker, Dr. Winfield Wickham, who is director of child guidance clinic, Alameda County Probation Department, and faculty member at the University of California.

Dr. Wickham will show a film, "The Angry Boy," which depicts the life and problems of a 10-year-old boy and shows how he is helped.

Dr. Wickham will comment on it and conduct a discussion period on the subject of discipline and child guidance.

Refreshments will be served by the second grade room mothers, Mesdames Paul Kalff, W. Armstrong, Jack Eyman, Bryce Simpson and their assistants.

Barbara Brendel Married Sunday

Married Sunday in St. Isadore's Catholic Church in Danville were Barbara Ann Brendel of Alamo and Alan H. Alkire of San Francisco.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Brendel of 140 Leona Court, Barbara is a graduate of Richmond High School. She was president of Alpha Zeta sorority there.

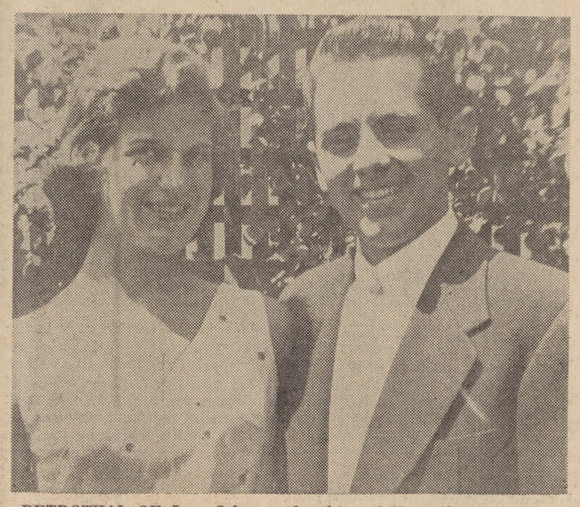
She also attended San Jose State College and Barbara is an accomplished dancer and marimba player.

Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Alkire, now attends San Jose. He served with the armed forces for two years in Korea.

The couple met at Yosemite National Park during a summer when both worked there. They are now at home to friends in San Jose.

Local Women Are Art League Officers

Among the officers of Art League of the East Bay are two local residents, Mrs. Oliver Hamlin, president, and Mrs. J. Walter Scammell Jr., publicity director. Both reside in Lafayette.



BETROTHAL OF Jane Scheuer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Scheuer of 3364 Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, to Gilbert B. Boucher of Riverside and Berkeley has been announced.

Juniors Give School $242

The Lafayette Junior Woman's Club has turned a check for $242 over to the East Branch, Mentally Retarded Children, Contra Costa County. The school, in Walnut Creek, has been the major philanthropic project of the year for the Juniors.

Mrs. Russell Smith and Mrs. Orville Jones, philanthropic chairmen, reported the check will buy indoor and outdoor play equipment, therapy equipment, four tables and 16 chairs and will provide for the furnishing of a speech therapist for one hour a week for 15 weeks.

Maytime Modes will be the theme of the spring fashion show planned by the Juniors for El Nido, April 30.

Mrs. Mary Gordon, women's representative, TWA, will coordinate and moderate the show. Mrs. D. Young and Mrs. Cecil Mark will be in charge of models.

A grand door prize is being obtained by Mrs. Walter Kenzler and Mrs. David Colwell. Mrs. D. W. Andresen is in charge of decorations and Mrs. E. C. Allen is in charge of tickets.

Mrs. George Yorg, ways and means chairman, is obtaining programs. Fashions for the show are being furnished by Hill N'Dale and Lad n'Lass stores of Lafayette.

Rummage Sale to Aid Blind Camp

Bargains galore, including brand new Easter bonnets and brass bird cages, will be offered when the Orinda Branch of the Lighthouse Auxiliary to Recreation for the Blind, Inc., holds it spring rummage sale Thursday at Miller's Rummage Sales Room at 2049 San Pablo Avenue, Berkeley.

"Funds realized from this project will benefit the Enchanted Hills Camp for the Blind in Sonoma County, the only camp of its kind in the West," says Mrs. Jess Long, chairman of the event.

Mrs. Long requests that anyone desiring to contribute rummage call her for pick-up at CLifford 4-3402 or bring the rummage to the sales room after 3 p.m. Tuesday, marked for the Lighthouse Auxiliary.

Varsity, Bee Fives Tangle Tonight In Walnut Creek Gym of Las Lomas

Basketball is definitely in its twilight, with the schedule rapidly approaching an end, but tonight's games and next Friday's encounters will probably produce some of the season's most competitive ball.

Tonight Las Lomas and Acalanes tangle in a pair of games at the Walnut Creek gym that are important if for no other reason than that the two schools are natural rivals.

The Bee clubs are out of the race as far as first division standings are concerned, but a win here makes a successful season for either club.

IN THEIR INITIAL meeting the Don Babies edged the Knights, 28-21.

The home court advantage could provide an even closer game, and a reversal in the win-loss columns is certainly not out of the realm of possibility.

In the first round varsity game the Dons registered a 44-26 win.

On the basis of record, the Dons should repeat tonight.

THE KNIGHTS' biggest scoring threat in size and ability looks to be Center Arne Lundquist who rates as one of the league's top scorers.

Don Coach Jean Ridley's answer appears to be a pair of sharp-shooters in Red Jones and Joe Sheaff, who can hit with the best.

The Dons have a double incentive to win.

While Pittsburg has copped the varsity pennant, the race for the No. 2 spot is a hot one between Diablo and Acalanes, each having identical records to date.

A WIN FOR the Dons tonight and a loss by Diablo to Pittsburg would put the local five out in front for the runner-up spot.

Tonight's other league games take place at Concord, with the Devils and Pitt in a do-or-die doubleheader.

THE BEE GAME should be a ding-dong-dandy, as the two clubs are currently tied for the championship and the winner here will be in a fine spot to end up on top of the heap.

In fact, a Pitt win would do just that, or they draw the bye next week.

Next week brings down the curtain for the 1954-55 basketball season, with Acalanes hosting Diablo, while Las Lomas meets arch-rival Pleasant Hill on the Concord hardwood, which serves as the Rams' home floor.

Vallecito PTA to Nominate Officers

Vallecito PTA members picked a nominating committee for new officers, heard a lecture on India and adjoining areas and voted to renew the group's subscription to the Junior Literary Guild at their February 10 meeting.

Those on the nominating committee are Mesdames Edwin Pike, R J. Pedder, J. K. Beatty and Hobart Thomas.

BILL BRYANT, A University of California student, gave the lecture on India, Pakistan and Ceylon.

His facts were gathered on a three month trip he made last summer under the auspices of the organization known as "Project Pakistan, India, Ceylon."

Bryant stated the main object of the project is to correct the impressions people of India, Pakistan and Ceylon have of the United States.

In answer to the three questions most frequently asked them, "Why is there still racial discrimination in the U.S.?", "Why does the U.S. oppose admission of Red China?", and "Why does the U.S. give military aid to Pakistan?", our students tried to give both the official standpoint of the United States and their own opinions.

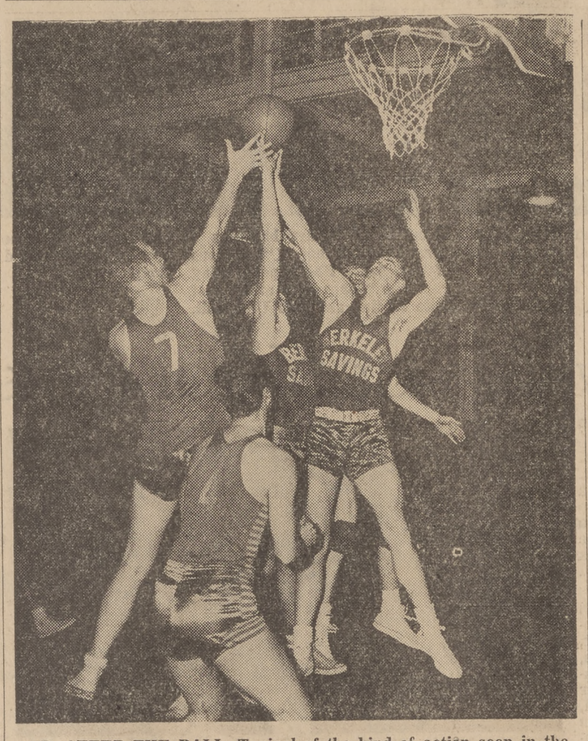
At the short business meeting held before Bryant's talk, Mrs. Graylis Vossler, principal of Vallecito School, modeled the new white T shirts and caps which are being sold by the PTA.

ACCORDING TO Mrs. Pinkus, ways and means chairman, the caps and shirts will be on sale immediately.

Fain Addresses Martinez C of C

Baseball player Ferris Fain of Cherry Lane, Walnut Creek, was guest speaker Friday night at installation dinner of Martinez Chamber of Commerce at Nick's Place, Martinez.

To join the Detroit Tigers this year, Fain held American League hitting honors one year. He played first base for the White Sox last season.



UP, AFTER THE BALL. Typical of the kind of action seen in the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission sponsored basketball league is this scene. No. 4, Pat Merrigan of Royal Tires looks on as three Berkeley Savings men vie for the ball with No. 7, Rod Costello of Royal Tires. The savers are Mike White, Doug Cowan and Dick Jekinson. Top flight play is seen each Tuesday and Thursday evening at Las Lomas High School. —SUN Photo by Mattson

Dons Register League Victories Over Ram Fives

The Acalanes Dons registered a pair of league wins over the Pleasant Hill Rams last Friday night, with the varsity sweeping to a 55-35 victory while the Don Bees showed surprising scoring power in taking the honors by a 55-42 tally.

In the varsity game the Dons had a scare in the first quarter, when they trailed 12-8.

Coach Jean Ridley had chosen to start with a man-to-man defense, and the Rams were quick to take advantage of openings as they outscored the Dons.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT story in the second quarter, when the Dons went back to their 1-3-1 zone and, outscoring the Pleasant Hill club 16-4, they left the count at the halfway mark with a 24-16 lead.

The Dons widened the gap in the third frame, when they took a commanding 43-27 lead, thanks largely to the efforts of Andy Fadelli, who hit for 7 points in the third quarter.

It was the Dons again in the fourth quarter, this time with Joe Sheaff hitting for 6 points to lead his team to a 12-8 margin over the Rams, making the final score 55-35.

The Dons' Red Jones and Joe Sheaff were top scorers with 16 apiece, while Bob Ritchie was the Rams' best with 10.

IN THE BEE GAME the Don Babes had one of their best nights of the season as they hit a high in scoring 53 points.

It was even enough in the early stages of the game. The Acalanes Bees trailed 14-11 at the quarter and 26-25 at the half.

IN THE THIRD quarter Don Bill Freeman hit for 8 points, to pace an 11-point attack which put the Dons out in front 36-32, as the Rams hit for a low 6.

In the fourth quarter the Dons kept the lead, and with it went the game as they posted 17 points to Pleasant Hill's 10.

Bill Freeman took scoring honors with 18 points, while the Don's Rich Markstein was next with a lucky 13.

Pirates Capture Varsity Title by Beating Knights

The Pittsburg Pirates needed one to cop the varsity title of the Contra Costa section of he Diablo Valley League, so they were higher than a kite last Friday night when they took both ends of a doubleheader from the Las Lomas Knights.

The games, played at Pittsburg's new gym, saw the Pirate Bees drop the Little Knights 43-20, behind the 15-point shooting of their ace forward, Willie Moore, while the Pirate varsity carved out a 68-31 win of their own which gave them the league crown by virtue of seven straight wins and nary a loss in in league play to date.

They have but one game left, that with Mt. Diablo, and inasmuch as every other club has suffered two or more losses, the story is told, as far as the 1954-55 casaba race is concerned.

THE PIRATE VARSITY sprinted to a 16-8 first-quarter lead, sparked by Johnny Weekly and Tommy DiMercurio, who netted three goals apiece in the opening stanza.

The Knights fought back but to no avail as the Pirate sharp-shooters continued to pepper the hoop while the Knights failed to hit more than 9 points in any quarter.

It was the Pirates 27-14 at the half, and the score mounted to 47-22 third quarter count.

THE PRIATES came safely home with the win as they hit 21 in the final quarter, to the opposition's 9.

Weekly of the Pirates and Arne Lundquist of the Knights tied for scoring honors with 16 apiece.

Lloyd Torchio Now Back at Acalanes– Doing Practice Teaching of Boys' P.E.

By ERWIN MATTSON

LLOYD TORCHIO, Acalanes graduate, recently repeated the graduating act, only this time at the University of California, and is currently engaged in graduate work which will qualify him for a teaching position.

Part of his work is practice teaching, which he is doing at Acalanes, teaching boys' physical education third and fourth periods for the second semester of the school year.

Next fall he will spend a semester instructing in physiology at Acalanes.

Charley Ostrom, another ex-Don football player, is currently at the United States Naval Academy.

From reports, he is enjoying Navy life and finds Annapolis to his liking. Bon Voyage!

A PREP FOOTBALL player with the last moniker of Bass from up Vallejo way is cutting quite a figure on the Bay Area sport pages these days.

Dick Bass is rated as one of the best-ever prospects in the local area, based on his prep record which found him running up terrific yardage while scoring touchdowns all over the place.

He is also a fine baseball player, and many big league clubs are interested.

Softball Group Elects Officers

Officers for the coming season were elected last week as an organizational meeting was held by Walnut Creek Softball Association.

New president is Make Massone who will be assisted by Phil Churchill, vice-president; Dave Perreira, secretary; Les Lloyd, treasurer, and Manny Cotlow, publicity chairman.

In addition, the number of teams desired in the league was discussed as well as sponsorship of the teams.

$36,000 Sought By Heart Fund

A goal of $36,000 has been established for the 1955 Heart Fund campaign, which is to be conducted locally throughout this month of February, it was announced today by Jack Hageman, Lafayette Heart Fund chairman.

He emphasized that a major portion of all contributions will be used to advance heart projects in this community and in California, with the remainder going to support nationwide research, education and community heart programs of the American Heart Association, with which the Contra Costa County Heart Association is affiliated.

Among the community services offered in Contra Costa County are: weight control classes, work simplification classes, and an information and referral service.

Since is became a national voluntary health agency in 1948, Hageman stated, the American Heart Association and its affiliates have channeled more than $8,000,000 into medical research looking toward the prevention and control of diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

"Research," Mr. Hageman said, "is the cornerstone of the heart program. Although medical science hsa made tremendous strides forward, much remains to be accomplished. As a matter of fact, the basic causes of rheumatic fever, high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries — conditions responsible for 90 per cent of all heart disease — are not yet known. Accordingly, research fully warrants the high priority it is given by your Heart Association."

Garden Checklist Offers Advice

This week's Garden Checklist offers this advice:

1. Plant these hardy annuals now for early spring bloom: Pansies, baby primroses, calendulas, violas and snapdragons.

2. You still have time to prevent peach leaf curl by using a spray of bordeaux mixture and oil or a solution of calcium polysulphide.

3. Time to prepare for spring! Using peat moss as a mulch, work it around camellias, rhododendrons and azaleas, placing one inch of mulch over the rooting area of the plant. Avoid disturbing the plants' shallow roots.

4. Soon it will be too late to plant bare root stock, so hurry with your planting of roses, fruit trees, flowering trees and shrubs. Plant these by March 1 for best results.

Flowering Fruit Trees Give Beauty, Also Supply Delicious Edibles to Home

By THE GARDENER

VIRTUALLY EVERY HOME gardener in California has the opportunity to raise fruit trees of one kind or another. And if types are selected that will both flower and provide fresh fruit for table use and canning, so much the better.

For example, there are many varieties of flowering peach trees suitable for home gardens that will produce excellent fruit. In the "Daily News" group, there are trees named — "Two Star," "Three Star" and "Four Star." Two Star produces single almond-type flowers of deep pink and then sweet, juicy, white-fleshed fruit in early July. Three Star flowers in deep pink in the spring and produces yellow freestone fruit in September. Double salmon pink flowers grace the Four Star in spring, followed by red-blushed white-fleshed fruit in early August.

Altair is another flowering-fruiting peach, producing white-fleshed fruit in the middle of August. Redwing bears white-fleshed peaches in late June after a good show of flowers.

AMONG FLOWERING CRABAPPLES, the Hopa bears an orange-red fruit — excellent for jellies — and fragrant, single rose-red flowers. Another flowering crabapple bearing edible fruit is Red Silver Crab.

Gladiolus Gives Varied Colorings

Gladioli are beautiful in the garden and wonderful in cut flower arrangements. And they are available in a wide range of colors.

To enjoy the beauties of the gladiolus in spring and summer, plant now.

Give the gladiolus a place in full sun, remembering that is a native of South Africa and appreciates a good sunning each day. The soil of the planting site should be well drained, although the plants require a lot of moisture up to their blooming period. Once the stalks and buds have appeared, however, ease up on the watering.

This Is Time to Plant Annuals!

Summer is a time of bright colors, bright sunlight, blue skies — and beneath it all, the bright shades of annual flowers abetting the beauty of the season. And right now is the time to plant late spring and early summer annuals.

An excellent choice is China Aster — a favorite for cutting and many garden settings. It is available in most colors except pure yellow and has a variety of forms.

Velvety and daisy-like are the blooms of the Coreopsis, which flowers in colors of yellow, orange, maroon, bronze and near crimson. The Coreopsis is an excellent flower to use as an edging.

For a showy, sun-loving flower choose the African daisy, sometimes called Cape Marigold. There are two varieties—one with white flowers and blue ring centers; the other of satiny orange blooms. Hybrids come in white, yellow, apricot and salmon.

Bill Would Give Counties Power To Route Trucks

Assemblyman Don Doyle of Lafayette said recently that his bill to give county governments the power to designate truck routes in unincorporated areas will come up for consideration in March.

Doyle introduced the bill January 17 into the State Legislature. He explained that at present city governments are allowed to designate truck routes through the cities, keeping trucks out of heavily congested areas.

"This bill will allow counties to designate routes for trucks other than delivery in the various unincorporated areas of the county," Doyle said.

He added the bill was introduced at the suggestion of County Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings and County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer.

The assemblyman commented that "It is hoped this bill will lead to a curtailing of heavy truck traffic through our residential areas."

Night Card Party

A night card party to include club members, their husbands and guests is scheduled for March 12 at the Alamo Women's clubhouse. Co-chairmen will be Mrs. Mason Williams, Lunada Lane and Mrs. Robert King, Arbor Lane, both Alamo.

Your Garden

These Are Last-Chance Days for Those Bare Root Planting Jobs to Be Done

By THE GARDENER

THE RAPIDLY APPROACHING spring season heralds all kinds of good things for gardeners.

But on the negative side of the ledger, it means the end of the bare root planting season. So these are days when bare root planting jobs should be done.

ROSES ARE STILL available at nurseries in bare root form, but they should be obtained and planted right away.

If the roots should dry out before you can get the plants in the ground, revive them by soaking in water and then keeping the entire plant covered with moist soil for several days.

At actual time of planting it is important that the plants be dormant and the tissues plump.

TO PREPARE the planting hole for bare root roses, dig the ground 18 to 24 inches in depth, or to a size that is sure not to cramp the roots.

You can then set the plant on a cone of earth in the hole, or directly on the ground. But either way you do it, be sure that the bud (the union of the stock and scion noted by a slight lump on one side) is slightly above soil level.

In general, rose bushes should be planted to the same depth that they were in the nursery. And this depth can usually be readily determined by observing the soil stain on the root stock.

UNTIL THE BUSH is well established, leave a basin around the plant for irrigation.

In irrigating, run the water long enough so that the root zone is completely watered.

Mulch around the plant and fertilize according to the type of soil you have. Your nurseryman can advise you on what fertilizers to use.

IN OTHER TYPES of bare root planting the gardener usually will be working with deciduous trees—fruit and shade — and deciduous flowering shrubs.

Most fruit trees need deep, rich loam to produce good fruit.

Prune young trees before planting; maintaining a balance between roots and top branches by pruning both. The main stems should be pruned back to about 2 feet and the lateral branches tipped back, keeping some to form future side branches.

Pulverize the soil well and mix in moist peat moss.

TREES, BOTH fruit and shade, are usually 2 years old at the time of planting.

They should be set into the ground to the depth that they were in the nursery, indicated by the soil mark on the trunk.

The bud should be above the ground and the roots spread. Set the trees in straight, unless planting in a prevailing wind.

PROVIDE A BASIN several inches in deth and a foot or two cut from the trees. Fill this basin continuously until the root area is thoroughly soaked.

Remember, where bare root planting is concerned, "it is later than you think."

So if you have left anything in this line undone, stop in at the nursery and make selections right away.

EMERGENCY STOP TEST

One method by which the average automobile operator can gauge his driving ability is by noting the number of emergency stops he makes in a day, week, or even longer. An emergency stop, according to the National Automobile Club, may be regarded as one whose stimulus appears with startling suddenness and that calls for an unsparing application of the brakes to avoid a crash.

About our happy Country Folks

Since the beginning of time man has locomoted on every sort of conveyance from dynosaurs to skates, pogo sticks to little M.G.s. Around these parts we have a staggering assortment of vehicles including a percentage of Cadillacs which must make the Cadillac manufacturers very happy. The Maylon Taylors' Mercedes-Benz, numerous Jaguars, and Mrs. William Keating's Ferrari always cause us to drop our bridge work and gaze with a combination of passions including envy, curiosity, joy and more envy.

Two-toned jobs run through color spectrum

There are two-toned confections from mauve, lavender and Schaperelli pink to metallic bronzes and/or the flesh tones. Then that delightful old Peirce Arrow painted turquoise blue belonging to the Lance Bardens, and the "armored truck" which belongs to the Ned DeLaveagas for hunting and fishing expeditions — you have seen it around — it looks like one of Brink's pick-ups but is completely outfitted with bunks, kitchen facilities and two old fashioned rocking chairs.

There is at least one little model which flits up El Toyonal with no hood, no fenders and no rear but it gets there just the same.

Well, having no "cad" or no "jag" we jumped in to our "stude" and beat it for Diablo Country Club to confer with the powers behind the forthcoming Concours d'Elegance — and exhibition of sports cars to be held in the late spring. On hand were Messieurs Bertillon and McCartney of Sport Cars Unlimited who interestingly explained that there will be two previous exhibitions and then the choicest cars will be invited to participate in this event.

Incidentally, cars are not the only snappy models be displayed — there will be a fashion show in collaboration with the parade of cars and anyone with a spark of excitement in his soul and two eyes in his head will certainly want to go. More on that later.

We branch out all over the area

And now, because of no more "Patter on the Party Line" we have received orders from headquarters to spread our field of news to include Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

For a sedentary old parcel like ourself, who thinks long and hard before even venturing to the other side of the Crossroads, that is quite a dish of tea. However, we have come up wih the prize package this week — namely the annual meeting of all Hospital Branches at the Claremont Hotel. The country girls took off their blue jeans and put on their earrings and ventured from the three previously mentioned areas to mingle with the city lassies from the other side of the tunnel and this is who we saw:

Mesdames Joseph Murphy, William Selffert, Emerson Weiser, Robert Haring, Robert Rowe, Richard Martin, David Brunson, Wellington Ray, John Reilly Jr., Arthur Scheu, Edwin Pike, Ned DeLaveaga, Thomas McGuire, Fred Borden, Theodore Beckett, Mel Nielsen, Joseph Downs, Rudy Rasmussen, Burton Kohler, Miles Sutliffe, Cecil Cantrill, James Seaman, Fred Goodwin, Ronald Kersh, Willem Scholberg, Bruce Lee, William Anderson, Frank Wright, R. J. Maddox, Heber Smith, and undoubtedly vast numbers more but that is all we could see without our bifocals (which we cannot wear with a hat — and we were dressed up that day).

Special mention went to Mrs. Harvey Lyons for being such a meticulous keeper of the books on hospital volunteers. She turned in a score of 5228 and 3/8 hours and we would like to know who worked the 3/8ths.

Also to our little Daphne Branch at Acalanes which, under the guidance of Terry White and Mary Matlock, turned in $1077 last year. Quite some thing for a relatively new branch of high school juniors.

Also, Mrs. Fred Goodwin, chairman of Orinda Branch, was elected as a director of the hospital — quite an honor for a girl whose head evidently has something inside as well as on top — we are referring to that green hat she was wearing — a chic chick, that one.

Also Acacia Branch is sponsoring "My Three Angels" to be staged by the Orinda Dramateurs in Berkeley later on, so you see, our side of the tunnel was well represented.

Moving from here to there, beyond the Tunnel

The Eric Peters have moved from their Hidden Valley home to an apartment in Oakland and the A. L. Baritell home is being occupied by the Robert Daltons.

Mr. and Mrs. Perc Brown recently invited neighbors for cocktails to meet their charming guests from Switzerland whose names we couldn't attempt to spell, pronouce or pass on to you.

Interesting luncheon held recently at the Orinda Country Club by the Lafayette Women's Forum. There were 12 tables and a birthday cake at each. The members sat at tables according to the month of their birth and they were each given a copy of their horoscope. They were celebrating the 35th anniversary of the organization which started at a book club.

New baby department — one each for Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Elvidge and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Nelson.

The Lloyd Swains have been to Sugar Bowl, as has also Mrs. James Sharp. The Harry Jacksons have returned from Mexico, the Lonnie Bees and daughter Dodie from Hawaii, the Peter Patches from Soda Springs, and the Joseph Langs from Palm Springs. The Bob McFarlands are now in Honolulu and the Willard Millers and Lawton Shurtleffs are planning to go later on. In honor of that expedition the Clinton DeWitts and William Brocks are getting together some sort of parting shenanigan, however, more of that later.

Visitors from Boston — Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Fergusen, who are being entertained by daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James Tourtelotte. Dr. Fergusen is here for the Orthopedic Convention.

Young adventurers mix with Captain Fortune

And one recent Thursday, eight young men and three young ladies left town. They went by car to San Francisco — but, as always happens in cases like that, they were found — this time by Captain Fortune at KPIX. What excitement — it was Den 4 of Pack 78 of Lafayette — with one visiting lady, Miss Janet Effinger, and one visiting gentleman Master Stephen Scott.

The herding mothers were Mrs. Leland Scott and Mrs. William Effinger. The cubs performed on the program and the highlights of the occasion were: They saw not only Captain Fortune but also Deputy Dave of the previous program. They realized for the first time that the programs they had been watching over TV were not staged in a great big house but actually in a corner of a studio with simulated props.

Then, as though that weren't enough excitement for one day, they went to Fisherman's Wharf — at dinner at Tarantino's — fed those two seals in a cage on the street and took in the Aquarium. The mothers had the time of their life, by their own admission. The membership list as follows: Masters Jimmie Effinger, Larry Logan, John Dutton, John Freitas, Michael McNevin, Marc Kaplan and Leland Scott, and

That is all.

YOUNG KENNETH JACUZZI of Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, and his dad, Candido Jacuzzi, admire the hydrotherapy pump Mr. Jacuzzi developed because of the boy's severe arthritis.

Boy's Illness Brings New Industry

A small boy, whose needs were greater than most boys his age, is responsible for the beginning of a new industry in the Bay Area.

The boy, Kenneth Jacuzzi, 13, was afflicated with rheumatoid arthritis when he was two years old and because of his need for hydrotherapy treatment, the new business of making pumps especially for hydrotheray massage was born. So that others may benefit from the developments made for Kenny, the Jacuzzi Hydrotherapy Division in Berkeley has been established.

WHEN HE WAS five, Kenny required daily hydrotherapy treatment for his severe arthritis condition. In a way, he was lucky—his father is Candido Jacuzzi, general manager of Jacuzzi Brothers Incorporated, of Richmond, one of the world's largest makers of pumps.

This bit of luck means that a great many other children and adults will benefit from the work of Candido Jacuzzi through the young hydrotherapy "whirlpool bath" industry.

The Jacuzzis live at 1239 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

Since it was necessary for his son to be taken daily to Children's Hospital in Oakland for hydrotherapy treatment, Candido Jacuzzi began discussing with doctors and hospital staff members the possibility of home treatment.

IT WAS agreed that great strides could be made in therapy if frequent, regular home treatments could be administered, instead of using over-taxed hospital facilities.

Since Jacuzzi was a pump man, it was suggested he develop a hydrotherapy pump, similar to the one used in the hospital.

Working at home and consulting with his engineering staff, Jacuzzi built a simple hydrotherapy pump. Doctors agreed that this new pump was equally as effective as the one used in the hospital for Kenny. Thereafter, regular treatments were administered at the Jacuzzi home.

Later, Jacuzzi was asked by doctors and friends to develop this hydrotherapy pump into a unit that could be used in regular home bathtubs so that thousands of others might benefit.

BASED ON HIS own experience building Kenny's "whirlpool bath" pump, Jacuzzi designed a simple, lightweight, portable hydrotherapy unit that is receiving acclaim and acceptance by physicians, hydrotherapists and hospitals throughout the United States and Canada, wherever it is used.

Young Kenny, greatly helped by the hydrotherapy pump, is now a first class Boy Scout. He moves about and engages in Scout activities through the aid of a tricycle, but hopes that one day he'll be walking like others.

One of the highlights of the afternoon will be a drawing for a white fox stole.

Nursery Parents To Be Oriented Monday Night

An orientation meeting for new parents of the Lafayette Nursery School will be held Monday, 8 p.m., at the school in the Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Miss Esther Noland, director, will acquaint the parents with the location and use of supplies and equipment.

The next business meeting will be held Wednesday, 8 p.m., at Lafayette School.

THE PARENT EDUCATION Committee presented two films about pre-chool age children February 16. Following the films, Mrs. Philip Chance, chairman of the committee, announced the next program will be a panel discussion on "Discipline."

Mrs. Howard Smith, chairman of the fund raising committee, reported that the recent Wine Tasting Party, sponsored by the group, was attended by more than 150 people, and had netted the Nursery School a substantial profit to add to the equipment fund.

According to Mrs. John Starkie, membership chairman, the most recent additions in the younger nursery school group are Nora Cusack, Steve Cook, Dannie Ginsey, Marilyn Pugatch and Tony Stadlman.

The older group, which meets three mornings a week, has three new members: Dick Rosston, Jackie Clark and Harper McKee.

THERE IS ONE opening in the younger group. Any parent wishing to enter a child, or to place his name on the waiting list, may call Mrs. Starkie at AT 3-2768.

The newest equipment in the Nursery School play yard is an assortment of large wooden packing cases.

Mrs. Raley Wiles Heads Seal Drive

Mrs. Raley Wiles of 3 Diablo Circle, Lafayette, will head the county's 1955 Easter Seal campaign as co-chairman with Mrs. Emily Axtell of Richmond.

The Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults is local sponsor. The fund drive begins March 10 and will extend through Easter Sunday, April 21.

The chairmen predict this year's drive, the 22nd annual campaign, will be the most extensive in the county's history.

Asking contributions from each family, the chairmen promise "no telephone or door-to-door solictations will be employed. We want people to give because they want to help crippled children."

Aubudon Group to See Nature Exhibits

The next regular meeting of the Mt. Diablo Audubon Society will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the biology laboratory, Building 8C, of the Contra Costa Junior College, East Campus.

Dr. Ferd Ruth, biologist, will address the group informally and show the reptiles and other animals housed in the laboratory.

The meeting is open to the public.

The March 6 field trip will be a visit to the Tilden Park Nature Area, according to Miss Norma Warner, chairman. The nature area is in the canyon north of the Brazilian Room.

The group will meet at 9 a.m. with the park ranger on hand to conduct the 90 minute trip along the nature trail. Members and others interested are asked to bring their lunches for an informal picnic at the Indian Camp area later.

Those offering transportation or needing it are asked to contact Miss Warner, evenings, at YE 4-4604.

Edith Piaf to Appear in S.F.

Edith Piaf and her Continental Revue will be at San Francisco's Geary Theatre for two weeks startang March 7.

For this engagement Miss Piaf will sing her old favorites as well as some new songs in the style that has made her the favorite of both continents. She will be supported by four acts including her husband, Jacques Peals, an international singing star, who will also serve as 'compere' of the show.

Performances will be nightly, including Sunday, with matinees on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Curtain time for matinees will be 2:30 and all evenings at 8:30 except Sunday and the curtain then will be 7:30.

Gun Totin' Youths Should Check Law

By GLADYS SHALLY

Longer, sunnier days plus a touch of spring fever may be a temptation for that boy of yours to slip out with his BB gun or .22 rifle for a little target practice.

But as an under-16-year-old gun owner, is he aware of the county law governing his ownership—that he may not possess or use the gun unless under the direct supervision of an adult?

TARGET PRACTICE in itself is an innocent and healthfy pastime, under the direction of an adult and providing that the target is an inanimate and useless object, such as a can.

However, numerous cases have been reported where the target practice was not so innocent. The telephone company has had to replace cables several times around Lafayette lately. When service was disrupted the company traced the trouble to telephone cable which had been damaged by target shooters.

Power line insulators, all too often the targets of marksmen, are broken by the dozen. According to a PG&E spokesman, a broken insulator can be a danger to life and property. A power outage due to a broken insulator is hard to locate. (A recent example was the hour and a half power failure in the Walnut Creek area—directly attributed to an insulator shattered by a rifle bullet.)

Even a well-placed BB can cause damage to electrical equipment.

OFTEN, TARGETS FOR youthful BB gun sharpshooters are dogs, cats and song birds—the latter usually fatally injured.

A fine of not more than $500 and imprisonment for three months, or both, can be given anyone caught violating the terms of the county ordinance.

The ordinance states: "It shall be unlawful for any minor under the age of sixteen (16) years to possess or use any firearms of .22 calibre or greater and/or air guns within Contra Costa County unless said firemarms and/or air guns are under the direct supervision and control of adults."

Disqualification Of DeCosta Asked In Moraga Hassle

Disqualification of Planning Commissioner Joseph D. DeCosta in the Moraga zoning matter was requested recently by Robert L. MacHugh of 956 Janet Lane, Lafayette.

In a letter to George Honegger, acting chairman of the County Planning Commission, MacHugh stated:

"I believe that it is incumbent upon the planning commissioners to disqualify Mr. Joseph DeCosta from any participation, active or advisory, in regard to the applications of the Utah Construction Company to the Planning Commission.

"THE PARCEL of land under consideration is (approximately) 10,130 acres, of which 13.82 per cent is owned by the East Bay Municipal Utalityl District, by whom Mr. DeCosta is employed. He should not be placed in the position of attempting to serve two masters: the taxpayers of Contra Costa County and his source of livelihood.

"Inasmuch as Mr. DeCosta felt that he should disqualify himself in the Orinda zoning matter, where EBMUD was involved, it seems logical that he should be disqualified also in the current zoning matter pertaining to the Utah activities in Moraga."

A COPY OF this letter was sent to Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings. In a letter accompanying the copy, MacHugh wrote Cummings:

"If the Planning Commission collectively (or Mr. DeCosta individually) are unable to recognize the fact that it is to the best interests of the taxpayers of Contra Costa County that Mr. DeCosta be disqualified in this matter, I suggest that the supervisorial body instruct the commission or Mr. DeCosta to take this action."

Peet New Head Of Happy Valley Improver Group

Harry E. Peet was elected president of the Happy Valley Improvement Association at the organizations' annual meeting February 8 in the kindergarten room of the Vallecito School.

In addition to electing five officers, the members changed the bylaws to increase the number of directors-at-large from three to six.

Besides President Peet, new officers are: Vice-president, Barney Rocca; secretary, Alice Paulding; assistant secretary, Ford Tussing (outgoing president), and treasurer, Ralph Hill.

Directors-at-large are John Athanson, Arthur Bertolero, C. L. Sawyer, H. P. Stewart, Dale Stoops and Russell Bruzzone.

The former board had recommended increasing the number of directors-at-large to five, but at the membership meeting it was decided to elect six such directors.

Discussion of the status of Happy Valley incorporation plans and other matters was postponed until the March 14 quarterly meeting, Mrs. Paulding reported yesterday.

CD Welfare Chief Named in Lafayette

The appointment of Mrs. Edward Miller, 1127 Garden Lane, Lafayette, as chief of welfare service for the Lafayette Civil Defense Subcouncil, was announced yesterday by Jack Pedder, local coordinator.

"Mrs. Miller has been one of the more enthusiastic persons in the reorganized Civil Defense program, and I am very pleased that she accepted this assignment," Pedder said.

Pedder added:

"The first task will be recruiting food preparation, registration and clothing distribution teams and case aides to man the four schools in the Lafayette area, which have been designated to serve as welfare facilities in an emergency.

"School personnel are being requested to assume supervisory positions in the function their schools will assume in an emergency.

"This is a part of the County Civil Defense welfare program, and support of Lafayette citizens is necessary to complete and strengthen our local Civil Defense."

All interested persons are urged to contact Mrs. Miller or the County Social Service office in Martinez for further information.

ECCJC Pupils Are Honored

For their service to the Associated Student Body last semester, three East Contra Costa Junior College students have been awarded permanent life memberships, the highest honor students may confer upon their fellows.

The three are Harold "Sonny" Dunham, Pittsburg, mens' athletic commissioner and manager of the Viking basketball team; Ken Harvey, Walnut Creek, editor of the Viking Reporter, and Mirko Milicevich, president of the Fall 1954 student body, and re-elected this spring.

HARVEY AND Milicevich are both veterans, wounded in Korea service.

The awards and others, including annual basketball team awards, were made recently at a College Hour program in Building 12. Rally Committee entertainment was provided by John Vasquez and Dave Rouner, both of Pittsburg; Mary Lou Seaman, Concord, and Robert Novo, head yell leader, also of Pittsburg.

The 16 students who served on the fall Student Council received letters of commendation from director Leland L. Medsker and dean of student personnel, Karl O. Drexel.

They included besides Milicevich and Dunham, Jim Hill, Orinda, vice president; Ann Cardwell, Pleasant Hill, secretary; Richard Sneed, Martinez, finance; Richard Johnson, Concord, rallies.

FRANK DWINNELL, Concord, assemblies; Carolee Meyer, Orinda, social affairs; Patt Funk, Pleasant Hill, publications; Barbara Eschmann, Concord, public relations; Bill Smith, Walnut Creek, publicity; Karen Maderos, Concord, women's athletics; Arlyn De Benning, men's representative; Enes Millar, Antioch, constitution and election; Jerry Hunt, Martinez, Inter-Club Council.

For winning the Golden Valley Basketball Tournament in Napa in December, the Viking team received individual miniature gold basketballs and commendation from Coach Gay Bryan. Bill Graham of Antioch, who was named a member of the All-Tournament team, received a gold buckle.

Drive to Benefit Italian War Orphans

Ophans of Italy, Inc., an organization much like the American "Boys' Town," will benefit from a concerted drive soon to get under way in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

Because Orphans of Italy, Inc., is in need of continuing help, a local chapter was formed recently at a meeting with Emmet Daly, assistant attorney general, and the organization's state chairman.

Mrs. Matteo Gavotto of Lafayette is the chairman of the local chapter, which embraces Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

THE RESULT of a priest's promises to dying Italian soldiers during World War II, the boys' community is located in historic Castelletto Ticino, about 25 miles outside Milan. There, some 200 war orphans are getting a chance again at a wholesome and useful life

An American-born priest, Father William P. Carloni, founded the home. His promises to dying soldiers to visit their families brought to him the tragic realization that often the children were homeless, that their mothers had died too, and that they were wandering about the country in poverty and danger, easy prey to Communist teachings.

The castle was donated to Father Carloni, it has no heat and anly cold water, but the boys farm there and learn trades, and they can try to forget their horrible war experiences.

THE FIRST MONEY-RAISING project will be an "Italian Night" dinner, to be held March 24 at the Brazilian Pavilion of Tilden Regional Park.

The dinner will start at 7 p.m., and on hand to give his personal touch to the main course will be Martinez restaurater Paul Pagini, proprietor of "Paul's." Other Contra Costans assisting Mrs. Gavotto are County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer and Mrs. Sauer, and Peter J. Bertoglio of Pittsburg, grand venerable of the Grand Lodge of California, Order of Sons of Italy in America.

Alums of Delta Zeta Have Party

The Mt. Diablo Area Delta Zeta Alumnae held their annual Valentine dinner party recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Turre of Lafayette.

Honored guests of the evening were Mrs. Fred Kelleway, national treasurer of Delta Zeta, and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, president of the San Francisco-Bay Cities Alumnae, and their husbands.

Cocktails at 7:30 were followed by a buffet dinner. Entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Ed Firth of Lafayette.

Among those present at the gala affair were the John Brueners, Earl Cunhas, Thomas Taylors, Stephen Johnson Jrs., Ed Friths, Hans Beetzs and John Riners of Lafayette; the Horton Hills, John Bedecarres and the Daniel Chapmans of Orinda; the Hal Weatherbees and Fred Kelleways of Walnut Creek, and the Juel Liens, Charles Tourtelots and Chalmars Hastings of Concord.

The local alumnae group is not merely social in nature, and in keeping with one of Delta Zeta's national philanthropies, Hearing Helps, they recently presented a Train Ear to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Any new Delta Zetas in the area are urged to contact Meg Cunha, membership chairman, YE 4-6986.

Services Held for Mary McKeegan

Last rites were held Monday morning for Mrs. Mary McKeegan, mother of Emmett R. McKeegan, owner of the Chapel in the Valley, Lafayette.

Mrs. McKeegan, 88, died Saturday in a Stockton nursing home. A resident of Oakland for 68 years, Mrs. McKeegan was the wife of the late Patrick McKeegan, member of the Oakland police force for 50 years.

The deceased was a native of Ireland.

Services were from the Chapel in the Valley, 985 Thomson Road, followed by a requiem high mass at St. Perpetua's Catholic Church.

Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

Survivors other than her son, Emmett, are two other sons, Frank and Clarence McKeegan of Stockton; two daughters, Mrs. Josephine Tompkins of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Ed Hanson of Oakland; eight grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Assembly Hears Bills to Limit Utility Powers

A bill that might require East Bay Municipal Utility District to open up reservoirs to recreational use has been introduced into the State Legislature by Assemblyman S. C. Masterson of Richmond.

His proposal would require utility districts to open reservoirs to fishing in the event the State Director of Public Health certifies it would have no adverse effect on health.

Masterson also introduced legislation that would require district directors to take into consideration the effect on other taxing districts and on growth and development of on area in the selection of a site for a terminal reservoir.

Other bills authored by the Richmond representative would require utility districts to fix reasonable rates and permit payment of bonded indebtedness from earnings, if available, rather than taxes.

He also sponsors laws to grant a city or county the right to a hearing and appeal to the courts in the event it is dissatisfied with board actions and permit election of directors by wards, rather than at large.

Walnut Branch Prepares for Easter Fair

Members of Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay are now preparing their entry for the all branch Easter Fair which will begin March 3 and continue for four days at the Hotel Claremont, Berkeley.

Mrs. Carl Helmholz of Lafayette is in charge of the local entry in the East Bay social highlight. It will be a luncheon table setting designed to the theme "Flower Shower."

Trustees Confer With Utah About New School Site

Acalanes High School District trustees are now discussing a possible high school site with officials of the Utah Construction Company.

Discussion to date has centered around a possible site near Burton in the approximate area of the Lafayette Orchard Estates.

IN ACTION February 14, trustees accepted a low bid of $9456 from Romley Construction Company of Walnut Creek for erection of permanent outdoor bleachers at Las Lomas to seat aproximately 800 people.

Trustees directed the school architect to make a study on where to place district administrative offices, construction of which is now under consideration.

School board officers also heard a report on recommendations for the transportation system run by the high school district for both the high school and Orinda and Lafayette elementary schools.

THE REPORT was directed for consideration to the transportation committee which represents those districts which use the service. The report recommends some alterations in the current formula for dividing up the costs of the bus system.

Trustees also adopted a school calendar for next year, substantially the same as the current 1954-55 calendar.

Camellia Show Begins Tomorrow

Several local flower fanciers will take part in the Northern California Camellia Society's 10th annual show tomorrow and Sunday at the Oakland Auditorium.

Featured will be many of the new Camellia Reticulatas, to be shown in this area for the first time, as well as demonstrations on 100 varieties practical for growing in this county.

The Orchard Nursery of Lafayette is to have displays featuring Camellias and large redwood containers.

Also participating from Lafayette, will be O. L. Davis, Harold L. Paige, Haig Ashukian, A. E. Evers and Thurston Skei.

From Orinda, Mrs. H. J. Teachout and Barlow W. S. Hollingshead will participate.

Admission is 50 cents. Tomorrow's activity is fro m2:30 to 10 p.m. Sunday's is from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Dog Class Will Begin Wednesday

A new class in Novice Obedience Dog Training will start Wednesday in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center instead of this week, it was announced Monday by Carl Hatfield, president of the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club, co-sponsor of the course.

The new class for beginners will be held at 7:30 each Wednesday for eight weeks, with a practice class at 8:30 p.m. for those who have completed the beginners' session.

400 Attend Juniors' Dance

A crowd of more than 400 friends and members of the Lafayette Junior Woman's Club gathered at the I.D.E.S. Hall in Saranap to enjoy the second annual spring dance sponsored by Lafayette Juniors.

Valentine's Day was the theme and hearts and cupids decorated the hall.

The dance was held February 5.

IN THE CENTER of the dance floor, a modernistic pink tree with Valentine leaves was the main attraction. A pink picket fence bordered the tree and Valentine flowers were arranged by the art committee under the leadership of Mrs. Leo Coleman and Mrs. William Abbott, chairmen.

Door prizes were awarded at midnight by President Mrs. Don Young assisted by Mrs. Charles Kennett. All prizes were donated by local merchants.

CLUB MEMBERS entertaining guests with pre-dance cocktail parties were Mesdames Robert Stevens, Vernon Adams, Russell Smith, Martin Duffy, D. W. Andresen, Charles Kennett, George Haber, Don Young, Richard Burnside, Louis Biegel, H. L. Eggers, George Yorg, Joseph E. Taylor and J. P. Van Overveen.

All proceeds of the dance will be turned over to the club's major philanthropic project of the year, The East Branch, Mentally Retarded Children of Contra Costa County.

Brotherhood Week Helps Us See Reality vs. Falsehood

This week is Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

In Central Contra Costa County we have special reason to join in the nationwide observance of Brotherhood Week. In this beautiful suburban area we participate fully in American democracy.

Meanwhile in Moscow the Soviet radio beams its appeals into the world to unite as "brothers, comrades." Listening are millions in Asia, Africa, Europe—committed in their hearts to neither side, only to the hope for peace and happiness.

How can we help them see the "brotherhood" slogans of false ideologies for what they are: attempts to popularize and enforce a system in which a million "brothers" are ruled despotically by a handful of self-appointed "superbrothers"?

By acting like brothers among ourselves, for one thing. By replacing extreme partisanship with an awareness of the common good.

The idea of brotherhood is spreading. Right actions can infuse our words with power and make them heard over and through the din of the big lie.

Heart Fund Needs Your Aid

Central Contra Costans are joining with other Americans throughout the nation in supporting the 1955 Heart Fund campaign. Through the Contra Costa Heart Association, their contributions and participation do so much for the fight against heart and blood vessel diseases.

In case you have forgotten the campaign or are vague about it, here are just a couple of important facts:

1. In this area, the Heart Association receives no funds from United Crusade.

2. More than 700 research investigators—over 100 of them in California—are supported wholly or in part by Heart Fund dollars.

What They Say . . .

'Planning' Talk: Is It Necessary?

Charges and countercharges fill the air over planning problems in this fast-growing area.

Talk about master plans, zoning plans, "interim" plans, and the like seems to dominate the news, and the opening up of Moraga Valley, with the Utah Construction Company planning to develop a huge acreage there, has brought the clamor to an even higher pitch.

"DO YOU THINK all the excitement about zoning plans and master plans for this area detracts from enjoyment of life here—or do you think such activity is necessary to assure enjoyable life here?"

That's what our researchers wanted to find out this week, so they put the question to people whose names were selected at random from the telephone book.

Typical of the answers was that of Odie Monahan, 79 Loma Vista, Orinda.

"I THINK IT'S better for the people to get it all threshed out," he replied. "I don't think the excitement is unnecessary."

Mrs. Hal B. Day of 127 Las Vegas Road, Orinda, said, "I think all the excitement shows we're going ahead—progressing."

"I think it's necessary," answered Robert Cowden of 970 First Street, Lafayette. "It lets you know what's going on. It would be kind of odd, for instance, to drive down the highway and find a new section or district without knowing it beforehand."

"THAT'S A LITTLE bit hard to say," Mrs. R. H. Brannan of 3786 Lower Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, mused. "I do think certain plans are necessary to ensure a better life here."

"I enjoy all the talk about planning and zoning and cityship and countyship," was the reply of James Mutz of 242 Jeanne Drive, Pleasant Hill.

"More talk means more interest and more interest means better results," he said.

MRS. KENNETH JONES of 161 Cynthia Drive, Pleasant Hill, said she felt all the talk detracted "not a bit. Maybe it's all necessary; some of these things take a lot of discussion," she explained.

"Well — I think it's necessary," was the concise reply of Raymond Haagensen of 2304 San Juan Drive, Walnut Creek.

"I think it is necessary," answered Mrs. Edward Ebers of 1485 Pine Tree Drive, Walnut Creek. She explained "Some people are going to worry about nothing, regardless."

Truck Upturns, Man Escapes Bad Injury

A Martinez driver escaped with minor injuries when his pickup truck rolled over at a sharp curve on Reliez Valley Road, just south of Withers Road, at 6 p.m. February 17.

According to the county office of the State Highway Patrol, the truck driven by James W. MacAlvey of Route 2, veered off the road and struck two walnut trees, landing on its side.

MacAlvey, 39, was taken to Walnut Creek Kaiser Foundation Hospital, where it was reported he was treated and dismissed the same night.

Students Start Red Cross Drive

Mrs. George Thompson, Junior Red Cross chairman for Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, announces that local students will conduct a membership and fund fund drive in conjunction with the chapter's regular March fund drive.

The Junior Red Cross, whose members aid students in foreign lands as well as taking part in community welfare work, has complete authority over its own funds and policies. The Juniors are an independent unit within the National Red Cross organization and is the training ground for future Red Cross leaders.

Local schools will carry on a campaign to increase membership and encourage personal participation in its many aims and projects. Mrs. Thompson is meeting with school officials to complete plans for the Junior Red Cross drive.

Girls to Join in Sorority Celebration

"Getting to know you" will be the theme for a luncheon and program to be held by San Francisco and East Bay alumnae and U.C. collegiate members of Phi Mu to celebrate the 103rd anniversary of the founding of their sorority.

Local girls participating will be Claduia Mauzy and Nancy Begley of Walnut Creek and Patricia Miles of Lafayette.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Your editorial comment on "Light Industry Can Help Us" is very timely and well expressed.

So many of our incoming friends have not been here long enough to grasp the facts of "country life" and they are moving in so rapidly that it is only by articles like this that they may be educated.

I concur 100 per cent and commend you for your unbiased and adult approach to one of our area's greatest problems and one common to the whole of Eastern Contra Costa.

Jack Pedder.

High Building Volume Predicted

Expectation of a high volume building year for 1955 was expressed last week by John Schroll, chief of appraisal section, and B. J. Kral, land planning consultant, of the Veterans Administration to General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County in Orinda Willows, Orinda.

The VA officials pointed out that the estimates of 1955 volume anticipated the volume of 1,200,000 to 1,400,000. The latter figure would exceed the year of 1951 when 1,396,000 new homes were produced, it was stated.

The officials explained the exhibits and forms necessary for the certificate of reasonable value and outlined the procedures to be followed in the submission of a subdivision for VA approval.

The meeting was conducted by Garry Grover of Lafayette, president.

New members accepted at the meeting were The Osmundsen Company, Walnut Creek; Hancock Construction Company, Lafayette, and Walnut Creek Aggregates, Walnut Creek.

Local Students Visit Mills

Seventeen high school girls from the Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area visited the Mills College campus February 22, under the sponsorship of the Mills Alumnae Association's student recommendation program.

A panel discussion led by Mills student leaders was held.

Among the students visiting Mills College were: from Las Lomas High School—Carolyn Latham, Sally Knaak, Deanna Freeman, Diana Woodland, Betty Johnson, Carol Zimmerman, Kay Mauzy, Marcia Monten, and Sandra King. From Pleasant Hill High School—Mary Ellen Johnston, Mary Fittinghaff, Glenda Griffin, Shirley Erkinback, and Alice Lucas. From Acalanes High School — Diane Kercheval, Carol Feldman, and Virginia Vance.

This week, four other students from Acalanes High School: Sue Lamberth, Nan St. Clair, Joanne Ross and Pat Bacon; and Nan Goodart from Pleasant Hill High School, visited Mills College accompanied by Mrs. Stuart Henderson of 32 Loma Vista in Orinda.

Mrs. Henderson, a prominent alumna, escorted the girls around the campus, giving them a preview of college life.

10 Women Now 'Gray Ladies'

Ten local volunteers were "graduated" in a capping ceremony for Gray Ladies, held at the Officers Club of the Oakland Naval Hospital last Thursday.

Completing the intensive indoctrination course for women who give thier time in our military hospitals were Mesdames Jay Bedsworth, Alfred Berney, Sheldon Corner, Charles Herman, Robert Hillyard, Thaddeus Kogut, Jack London, Grace Mitchell, Boyd Thompson and Charles Wendall.

Mrs. Julius Loeb is Gray Lady chairman for the Mt. Diablo Chapter group serving at Oak Knoll Hospital.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

A different column today

Last Saturday evening, during a Cub Pack Family Dinner, Eleanor said, "You know, your column has been completely political for some time. How about something besides politics, zoning, highways?"

Since Eleanor is the mother of our little Cubs and perhaps my most avid fan, I herewith promise to try something besides politics this week.

First off, I want to report that we thoroughly enjoyed sitting down with our neighbors to the Cub pot luck dinner. It was real fun for our family to join the other three families of Den 6 for good food and friendship. Sometimes it is an effort to go to a school, scout or neighborhood meeting or party, but the effort is usually well rewarded.

Incidentally, our neighbors have been trying to organize a co-operative swimming pool but without success. It's too bad because most of these have been wonderful.

Save a child for $2

I have a memo to print a notice that The SUN has ordered another batch of "Children-at-Play—Slow" signs. (You notice I cleverly didn't write "Slow Children at Play.") For years the need for these signs was most apparent. Walnut Creek Lions Club had some made and sold them but had to discontinue the project. Then The SUN asked Frank Sellers to make some — and over 300 were distributed by The SUN at our cost. They will be ready in a week and cost $2.

I must admit I took two signs home almost a year ago — and they are still leaning against the carport wall. Shame on me!

The next item has something to do with politics but Eleanor has okayed it.

She and I were served lotus cakes after a Chinese lunch at Burma Road Wednesday. A lotus cake gave forth with the little slip of paper on which was printed this very wise quotation:

"Bad officials are selected by people who DIDN'T vote."

Will smog get in your eyes?

Does SMOG come under the heading of "politics?" No, I think we can safely discuss smog because it's something that will affect all of us very closely.

Did you read the prediction that the Bay Area is just five years behind Los Angeles in smog? In fact, did you notice the smog several months ago when we had heavy overcasts?

How terrible it would be if our beautiful weather is ruined by smog!

So, naturally, I gnashed my teeth when I read this news report:

The Industrial Association, representing 12 major industries in Pittsburg, Antioch and Nichols, today backed the County Supervisors' opposition to a bill pending in the State Legislature which would create a Bay Area Air Pollution Control District.

While the committee recognizes sources of air pollution as being motor vehicles, public and private incineration and commercial and industrial waste, the proposed control district does not effectively deal with the sources, the protest said.

"A careful reading of the suggested provisions indicates that in practical effect they are directed toward industries to the exclusion of other sources," the association said.

Let's pass the buck . . .

"Industry appreciates the air pollution problems and wants to cooperate in solving it in its entirety. However, no satisfactory gain in the elimination of air pollution can be accomplished by restrictions which are imposed on industry alone.

". . . we urge that the proposed approach be rejected."

The county opposed creation of a Bay Area Air Pollution Control District on grounds it would have been given police powers before the causes of air pollution had been thoroughly investigated and before proper control methods had been determined.

The supervisors February 2 appointed an Air Pollution Advisory Council, headed by Supervisor Warren G. Buchanan of Pittsburg, to recommend to the supervisors means of controlling air pollution on a county or regional level.

That's the end of the report.

Mild or strong phrases?

I'm not going into a long-winded discourse on smog but the action of our supervisors seems completely short-sighted — to phrase it mildly. There is no question that a major cause of smog is industry. And think what we have just a few miles from here — oil refineries, steel mills, chemical plants, paper processing, etc.

To oppose this smog control measure is just plain stupid — to phrase it not so mildly. Certainly, autos, incinerators, etc. contribute to smog. Let's control them too, but let's not delay action. Industry is a good place to start.

Write your supervisors and your legislators! Send us a copy of your letter.

By gosh, I did get serious after all. I'm sorry — I'm not cut out to be a Herb Caen or Delaplane.

Dinwiddie Estate Set at $168,392

The estate of the late Mrs. Julia Swobe Dinwiddie, Lafayette, was appraised at 168,392 in a report filed February 14 with County Clerk Walter Paasch by the state inheritance tax appraiser.

Mrs. Dinwiddie died September 27.

In a will and codicil, Mrs. Dinwiddie left her community property to her husband, James, vice president of the Dinwiddie Construction Company, and separate property to her daughters, Helen and Nancy, upon the death of Dinwiddie.

Income from the trust created out of her separate property will go to Dinwiddie. She also bequeathed a $25,000 insurance policy to her daughters.

Weavers Entertained By Upholstery Slides

The Diablo Weavers gathered yesterday at the home of Susie Warren, 3926 Le Roy Way, Lafayette, to judge upholstery.

Dorothy Aherns, noted weaver, was guest speaker and showed slides taken at various exhiibts.

A special meeting of committee members will be held Monday at the home of Noble James, 5210 Olive Drive, Concord.

William Ross Named Registrar for Draft
